CHAMPIONSHIP FORM — Miss Carla Hay, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Hay, 14170 Huron River Dr., earned top honors in all of her three events in the Wayne County 4-H Fair held in Belleville last week. She earned a perfect score of 48 points, the highest in both the junior and senior western division. She received a grand championship blue rosette and will have her name engraved on the Linda Hershey Western Trophy.

Carla prepares for competition

The thrill of a life time awaits 14-year-old Carla Hay of Romulus next week when she will be competing in the fourth Arabian and Half-Arabian United States National Championships Horse Show in Oklahoma.

This national competition will be held in the State Fair Arena at Oklahoma City Sept. 3, through 7.

Carla, who is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Hay, 14170 Huron River Dr., and her purebred Arabian gelding, "Cest La Vie", are eligible to compete in three classes, including English pleasure, Western pleasure, and gelding at halter. This show has been officially classified as a Star Show for the previous year by the American Horse Shows Association.

Between packing and practicing in preparation for the Nationals, Carla competed in the Wayne County 4-H Fair this past week with her favorite mount, "Cest La Vie", and won the western Championship.

She earned top honors in all of her three events, in the Girl 14 years and under division...fitting and showing, western pleasure and western horsemanship.

Carla earned a perfect score of 48 points, the highest in both the Junior and Senior Western Division. She received a grand championship blue rosette, and will have her name engraved on the Linda Hershey Western Trophy.

She will retain the trophy for one year and then will receive a smaller trophy to keep for herself. A rider must win three years in succession in order to retain permanent possession of the Linda Hershey trophy.

In 1969 Carla was named Reserve Western Champion at the Wayne County 4-H Fair, while riding a three-quarter Arabian "Marzed."

For the third consecutive year, Carla was also named to the Wayne County State Horse Team which will be competing at State 4-H Show at Michigan State University, East Lansing. She will have to miss this year because "Cest La Vie" is being readied to leave by horse van this week for Oklahoma City.

In National competition there is no age division so Carla will face the stiffest of adult and professional competition from all parts of the United States.

During the past year Carla and her purebred Arabian gelding have been competing in Class A shows in Ohio, Michigan, Arizona, Indiana and New York.

The experience she gained in these shows will stand Carla in good stead when she faces the stiffest competition of all over the Labor Day weekend in Oklahoma City!

Wayne, Trenton, Taylor getting new PCHA seats

The decennial census, recently completed and now awaiting final approval by President Nixon, has already created some changes in the Board of Directors of Peoples Community Hospital Authority — and may create some more.

To date, the cities of Wayne, Trenton and Taylor have notified Dr. Karl S. Klicka, PCHA executive director, that the census entitles each of these municipalities to an additional board member. This will bring total board membership to 45.

Appointed by their respective city councils to fill these new posts are: Amperio Carli, Trenton; Kurt M. Heidmann, Wayne, and Robert Rapley, Taylor.

At the special Board meeting on Aug. 13 the question was raised as to whether these new appointees were eligible for immediate seating. Ward Smith, legal counsel to PCHA, stated that in his opinion, based on a preliminary study of the issue, these appointees would not be eligible for official confirmation until the President formally accepts the census figures. This will occur in December of this year.

Mayor Richard Trolley of Taylor asked if this complied with the By-Laws of PCHA and Smith replied that these By-Laws clearly state that Board membership is based on the decennial census. Trolley then inquired if the word "official" appears in the By-Laws in relation to the census and Smith said it does not.

Board member Tracy Salisbury then asked if the Board could, by vote, declare these appointees official members now. Smith replied that this is a prerogative of the Board but he could not guarantee its legality.

Mayor Patrick J. Norton of Wayne then suggested that

Site plans submitted

Preliminary site plans for additions to the Guardian Coatings Corp., 16255 Wahrman Rd., Romulus, have been submitted to the Romulus Building Department, Joseph B. Gallagher, department manager, announced.

The plans are for a new resin plant and power house. The plans were filed with the department by Cummings and Barnard, Inc., architects & engineers of Ann Arbor.

The building department also announced that the firm was given a building permit for the construction of a one-story steel building to house a storage tank at 16255 Wahrman Rd.

The building permit was requested by Marcon Corp., of 43204 W. Jefferson Ave., Trenton, architects.

During his three years with the Romulus school system, he has served alternately as principal at Hayti and Beverly schools. In addition he has 1 additional years experience in the Detroit school system.

He is a graduate of Wayne State University with a Bachelor of Science Degree and holds a Master of Arts Degree from University of Michigan. He has served as a supervising teacher of students from WSU for 13 years.

Barr is also a recipient of a Fullbright Award (1958-59). He taught in Great Britain during this time.

The Merriman School attendance area will be made of portions of Mt. Pleasant and Harrison Elementary Schools' attendance areas as follows:

North Boundary: west of Eureka Rd., (including north side) from Middlebelt Rd., to Wayne Rd., north of Wayne Rd., (including east side) to North Line Rd., west on a line just south of Northline

West Boundary: south on a line just east of Huron River Dr., (not to include Huron River Dr.) to Pennsylvania Rd.

South Boundary: east on Pennsylvania Rd., (north side only) to Middlebelt Rd.

East Boundary: north on a line just west of Middlebelt Rd., (not to include Middlebelt of the area bounded by California, Burton and LeRoy Aves.) to Eureka Rd.

Fifteen teachers have been assigned to the new school. They and their grades are as follows:

Dorothy Weekly, kindergarten. Carole Walls, kindergarten and physical education; Cheryl Killebrew, first grade; Ernestine Gray, first grade; Nancy Seastrom, first grade; Nancy Fader, second grade; Judy Brownscombe, second grade; Linda Jarvis, second and third grades.

Merriman Elementary School was built at the cost of $850,000. The school building was financed from a 1968 Building and Site Fund approved by the voters in the amount of $3,400,000.

Ground breaking ceremonies were held in the spring of 1969.

Judith Miller, third grade; Roberta Mills, third grade; Mable Stevenson, fourth grade; Linda Petty, fourth grade; Margie Herrmann, fifth grade; Frances Elser, fifth and sixth grades; and John Morgan, sixth grade.

Letter of complaint brings a stern reply

By BEVERLY McANALLY

Jane Marie Lloyd is a fifteen-year-old girl who will be a junior this year in a high school in a neighboring suburb.

She is active in church work, is a Girl Scout and a high average student in school.

She is also on the FBI's list as one who has threatened the President of the United States.

Earlier this year, at a church youth meeting, Jane Marie was among several who addressed letters to the President expressing their concern about the expansion of the war into Cambodia.

Her major indiscretion was the language she used to state her position.

Just as it is not prudent to use words like "Bomb" or "Highjack" or "Cuba" in audible conversation on a Miami bound jet, neither is it wise to use words relating to longevity when addressing criticism to the President of the United States.

"We want this damned war stopped," said Jane Marie's letter, "and if you don't stop it, you won't live long enough to get re-elected!" she concluded. Strong words from a fifteen-year-old girl? Yes, but she had been encouraged to have strong feelings about the matter.

The entire evening's discussion had dealt with the war; its horrors and destruction. She had also been encouraged to voice her feelings to the President. But, she had not been advised to be responsible and discreet in her language.

She did not sign her letter with her name, using instead a childish metonym. However, she put her return address on the envelope. The letters were collected to be mailed, and Jane Marie forgot the incident.

Three weeks later, while Jane Marie was in school, Mrs. Lloyd answered a knock at her door to find two very serious young men who identified themselves as an FBI Agent and a State Policeman. They asked to speak with her.

They explained their purpose was to check on a threatening letter that had been addressed to the President from someone in the household. Mrs. Lloyd identified her daughter's handwriting.

Many questions were asked of Mrs. Lloyd concerning her daughter, her mental state, her activities and companions. The agents said that they wanted to talk to the girl. The mother asked that they not see Jane Marie at school, but return later that afternoon when she would be at home.

The men were prompt, stern and severe, and they talked at length to the girl; questioning her political attitudes, her mental condition and the groups to which she belonged. Finally they asked to photograph her and did so with the mother's permission, adding the photograph to the dossier that already contained samples of her handwriting and the note and envelope.

The Lloyd family was and still is shaken by the event. Although they have heard nothing further from the agents, they have an uneasy feeling that they have not heard the end of it.

They also feel that more discussion should have taken at the meeting that inspired the letter in the first place.

Jane Marie wonders if she really felt that strongly about the President, or if she was only voicing her anger at a situation beyond her control, and not expecting to be held responsible for her statements.

Oboist returns after summer symphony

Glenn Hayes, oboist and a senior at Romulus Senior High School, is home after having spent five weeks of study and performances in Dodgeville and LaCrosse, Wis. at the Symphony School of America.

The symphony is conducted by Francesco Italiano and is considered "America's most unique summer school".

While in Dodgeville it was entitled the Symphony of the Hills, performing throughout southwestern Wisconsin. In LaCrosse it was the Coulee Region Symphony.

Making the school unique are the facts that most of its concerts are outdoors and for every five students there is a professional to teach and perform with them.

Glenn's teacher, James Ostryniec, formerly with the University of Michigan and the Toledo Symphony, has recently accepted the position of second oboist with the Baltimore Symphony.

Student ensembles were also formed. These groups performed at various churches and restaurants in the area.

This year the school's repertoire was chosen, in part, by America's astronauts.

The symphony, whose performances included

Beethoven's "Symphony No. 5," Luther's "Eine Feste Burg," "Highlights from The Music Man," and the nationally famous rendition of the "1812 Overture" with fireworks and various other special effects, drew crowds numbering up to 4,000.

The final concert of the season, held at Myrick Park in LaCrosse, was attended by Glenn's mother, Mrs. Archie S. Hayes Sr. and Mrs. Pauline Graber.

Glenn commented that it was a great musical experience and he hopes to attend next year's session. He would also like to thank everyone who made his attendance at this year's session possible.

DONATION FOR RECREATION — Elmer Johnson, (left) president of the Romulus Progressive Club, Inc., is shown making a $2,500 check contribution to assist the financing of a professional recreational study for Romulus prior to making an application for state aid under Michigan's Clean Water and Recreation Bond Program. Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, looks on as DeWayne Martin, chairman of the city's recreation commission, accepts the "welcomed" donation.

Huron committee questions police

To the Editor:

Policies that are not followed according to the Policies of the Huron School District.

Under the heading of General School Policies A. (paragraph 3). "To secure the best possible means of instruction by providing qualified executives and teachers, suitable school buildings, equipment and supplies."

Has this policy been followed when teachers do not have the supplies needed to finish a school year? Can the best possible means of instruction be provided when this problem exists? (paragraph 4). "Keep the community continuously informed of the conditions, needs, problems, and accomplishments of the schools." Does this mean censoring the material the public is to receive?

Under section III - Rules and Regulations B. 9. (paragraph a). "Regular meetings of the board shall be held in the office of the Board of Education, in the Huron Elementary School, 24820 Meriman Rd., at 8 p.m. on the first and third Tuesdays of each month."

Why were the citizens told board meetings were normally held once a month unless a building program is under way?

Under section III - Powers and Duties of the Board. (paragraph b). "The board shall select and contract with a superintendent of schools for periods not to exceed five years. Said contracts to be given not later than Feb. 1."

Is it not true that our superintendent's contract was removed this past spring just prior to the election of the new board members? What was the reason for this?

Section III - C. Superintendent of Schools: (General Requirements) (paragraph 6) "He shall prepare and submit to the board from time to time:

- Statements of policy, programs, progress, etc.
- Reports of courses of study, textbooks used, etc."

If this policy were being followed, why did the board of education have to find out from the parents that the "Beginning Curriculum" was being used in our school system?

Section III - C. (again) (paragraph 14). "He shall, with the advice and assistance of teachers, prepare and revise the curricula, the courses of study, and select the textbooks to be used in the schools."

Can our Superintendent deny knowing anything of the "Becoming Curriculum" and admit to knowing all of the goings on in our school system under the specifications of his contract?

Section III - C. (again) (paragraph 31). "He shall purchase, with aid and advice of the teachers, all textbooks and workbooks used in the classes of the school, all library books for the school and see that proper records of accession, classification, cataloging, loaning, and disposition are maintained."

Where did our objectionable books come from? Who (Continued on Page 8)

Reader replies to Bly supporter

To the editor:

This is in reply to Messrs. Rekshan and Rickenbacker, whose letters appeared in last week's Belleville Enterprise. Their letters praised the "Bly slate" of Van Buren Township with such promises of ridding the township of "hypocrisy, outside criticism and flagrant and obvious corruption".

If this is the case, I'm wondering why these so-called men of "unimpeachable integrity" now find it necessary to print a "retraction" such as that which appeared on page 8 of the very same issue of the Belleville Enterprise! Looks to me like we'll have more of the very same kind of government if we were to elect the Bly people to office.

The men and women on the Gollwitzer Pro Team are the qualified, honest candidates and in my opinion, the only chance we have of returning to an honest government in Van Buren Township.

I sincerely hope each voter will carefully examine the background of each candidate before they go to the polls in November. I feel confident that if we all take the time to look over the candidates very closely, we will be blessed with good government once again. It's about time, don't you think?

Signed: Hopeful

People for Huron speak their mind

To the Editor:

The Huron school board and administration have, for the past several months, been the target of much criticism primarily from a single group. We would like to comment on subjects raised by the group.

What happened to Dr. Charles Kromer and the money saving computer scheduling program?

Dr. Kromer is not a 12-month employee of this district and is on vacation as are nearly all of the remainder of the staff. The computer scheduling program under the direction of William Miller, high school principal, is about 99 percent complete. This program was not intended to be a cost savings or a cost penalty but was intended to create better scheduling.

The People For Huron would like to thank both Dr. Kromer and Miller for their efforts in making this program successful.

What about the Transition Program as presented by Mrs. Pat Wiseley?

The preliminary presentation was received favorably by the school board. As soon as the Curriculum Council study is completed and if they, and the superintendent, recommend it, the board will be obligated to take action on it. However, if the program in its final form requires a pupil-teacher ratio of 15 to 1 it is doubtful it will be adopted at this time. The district can not, at this time afford to hire the additional teachers required for this program.

Residents camping trip

Fifty members of the Concerned Parents Association of Romulus returned last Thursday from a three-day camping trip to Island Lake Park, located near Whitmore Lake, Mich.

Mrs. Mattie Hester, chairman for the group, reported that they had enjoyed the experience. For months they had been earning money and making preparations for the excursion.

The group had camped in tents, sleeping on cots and sleeping bags. Food was prepared on an outdoor grill, with menus planned in advance of the trip.

While everyone enjoyed a relaxing vacation, no one was left with idle time, according to Mrs. Hester.

While adults fished, played horseshoes or engaged in the camping duties, the children were busy with crafts and planned games and activities. They also swam in the lake, with supervision.

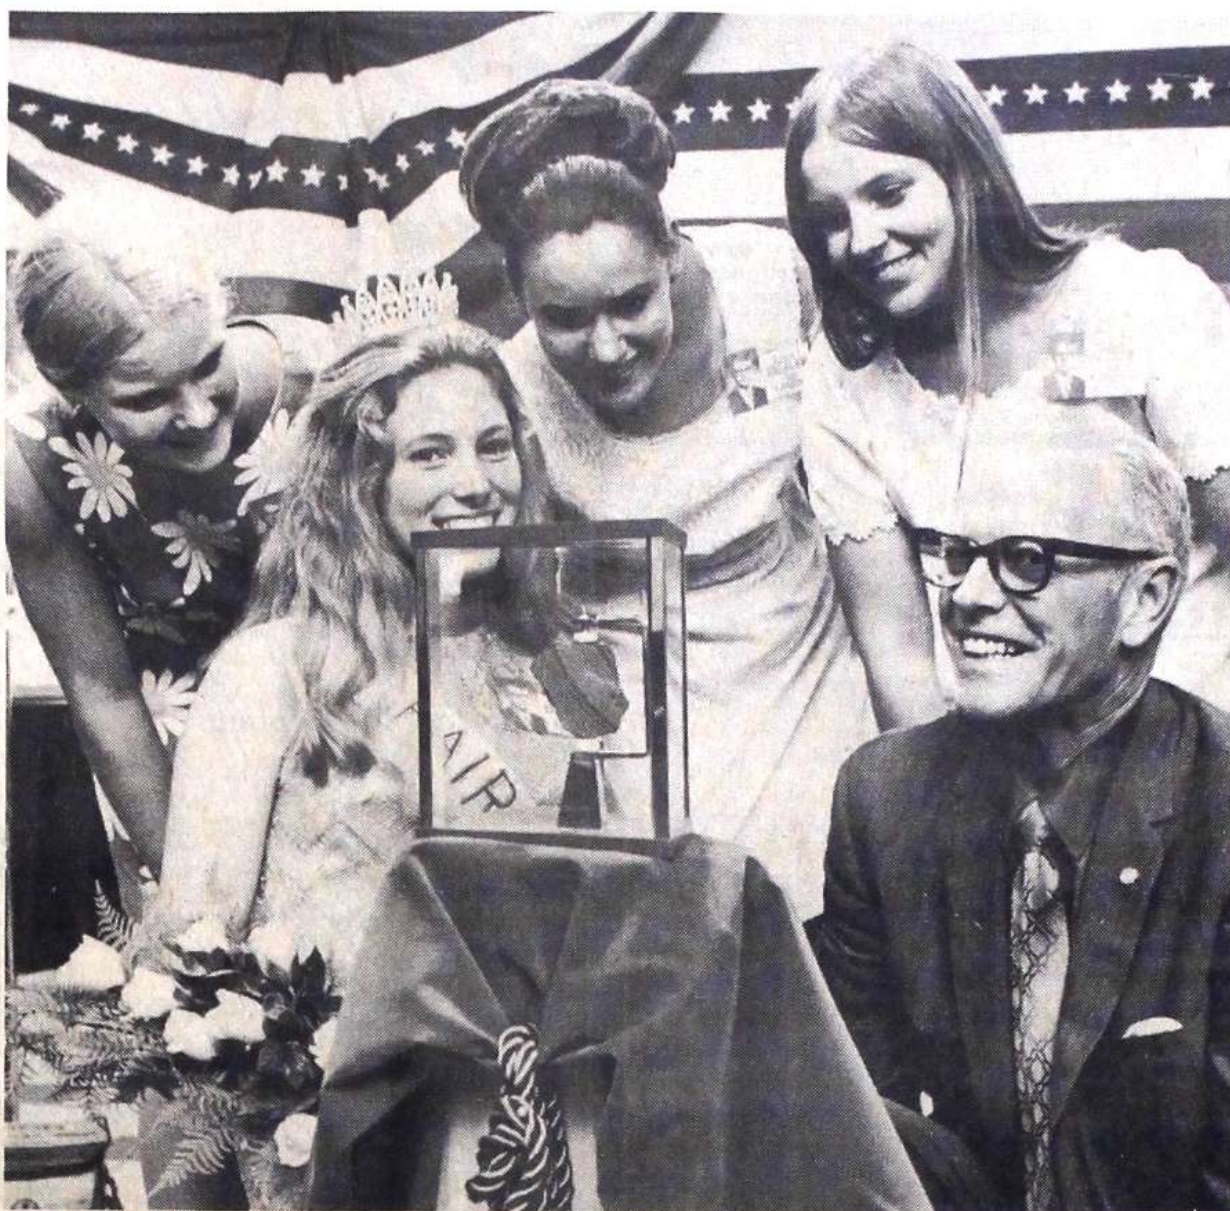

Two events added suspense and excitement to the outing: one occurred when a tent full of sleeping lady campers was invaded by a frog who found a camper asleep in his regular path to the lake.

The collision brought everyone to full attention and the culprit was located lurking under a cot, his eyes shining dangerously in the beams of a half dozen shaking flashlights.

Later the camp was hit by an early morning electrical and wind storm, which found all awake and hoping that tents would hold together and not leak.

Nearly everyone was back to sleep, snug and dry when breakfast call came at 7 a.m.

Homeowners hold annual picnic

The Romulus Homeowners Association held their second annual picnic on Aug. 9, at Lower Huron Metro Park.

Picnic officials estimated the attendance at over 600 people. It was evident from the 1,700 hot dogs, 25 pounds of baked beans, 40 cases of pop, 30 watermelons, that were consumed, that everyone completely enjoyed themselves.

Throughout the day the homeowners enjoyed the opportunity to meet and converse with some of the city officials and their wives. In attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Hy'e J. Carnichael, Mr.

and Mrs. Leonard Folmar, Mr. and Mrs. William Oakley, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Block, and Mr. and Mrs. Brooker Edwards.

The day-long schedule of adult and children games which included sack-races, three-legged races, a penny hunt, a candy hunt, horseshoes, softball games, nail pounding and whiffle ball met with enthusiastic participation due to the many prizes, which were so generously donated by area residents and businessmen.

The Homeowners Association would like to extend their thanks and appreciation to the following people who so kindly made donations:

Gene Johnson — Clark Oil Co., 8000 S. Beech Daly Rd., Taylor; Mr. and Mrs. McCoy, The Real McCoy's Restaurant, 24650 Eureka Rd., Taylor; Joseph Kehra, Jo Jo's Party Store, 38830 Huron River Dr., Glineski-Kratt's Market, 37590 Huron River Dr.; Sam's Pizza, 37525 Huron River Dr.; K.P.'s Party Store, 31450 Cherry Hill, Westland; Ted's IGA Market, Eureka Rd.; Hess Glass Co., W. The complete success of the picnic was attributed to the hard work of Mrs. Flora Kropke, serving committee; Pat Mitchell, grounds preparation committee; Dennis Oszust, Clean up committee; Charles Dettloff, ticket sales committee; Jack Madish, membership committee; Fred Williams, recreation committee; Norm Kent, purchasing committee, Ray Ostrowski, refreshment committee; William Quiney and Rose Thurston, Donation committee; and Joe Brazeau, transportation committee.

The Homeowner's Association has become a axial and dynamic organization in the city of Romulus. Their constant concern for civic betterment can be reinforced by attending their monthly meetings.

The next meeting will be held in September. A specific time and place will be announced later.

Civic groups appear on TV

Representatives of clubs and civic organizations in Romulus will appear on television this Labor Day weekend during local segments of the Jerry Lewis Telethon for Muscular Dystrophy, to be seen over WKBD-TV, Channel 50.

"Too many clubs and civic groups receive too little credit for the fine philanthropic work they do," Gribbs said. "This year, MDA will have a chance to publicly recognize those hard-working organizations on TV."

Invitations for on-the-air appearances are being issued to Romulus clubs for the first time this year by Detroit Mayor Roman S. Gribbs, Local Chairman for the 20 1/2 hours long telethon.

Members of Romulus clubs and organizations are invited to phone 863-3200 for the brochure "Put Yourself in the Picture," which gives details on arranging telethon appearances.

Society honors workers

The Wayne County unit of the American Cancer Society will hold its 1970 Awards Night on Sept. 16, Mrs. Ida Bennett, chairman of the Awards Committee, announced.

The presentation of awards to volunteers and others who have worked diligently in Service, Crusade, Education or in the society's office, will be conducted at the "Chamberlin", located at 22900 Michigan Ave., Dearborn, east of Telegraph Rd. (Holiday Inn).

Detroit Edison's new Monroe Power Plant, now under construction in Monroe, Michigan, will be the world's largest steam plant when it is completed in 1973; it will have a capacity of 3,200,000 kilowatts.

HOMEOWNERS AT PICNIC — The Romulus Homeowners Association held their annual picnic Aug. 9 at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park. Over 600 persons attended. Above are some of the picnic staff and association members.

Singles to dance

Single? 25 or over? If so, then an invitation to eat and dance at the corn roast sponsored by the Tuesday's Single Club has been extended to you by the club.

The corn roast will be held on Sunday, Sept. 6 at Island Park Shelter, Ann Arbor.

In our opinion

Strength in unity helps a community

In unity there is strength. No one can dispute this self-evident truth.

In the administration of government and in the future planning and development of one's hometown, unity in co-operation is a community's greatest asset.

Harmonious agreement among residents and businesses in community-wide projects and programs is a sure way to happy residential living.

In recent months efforts of some local citizens groups, homeowners associations and other civic units have succeeded in their efforts towards goals sought.

In some instances they were assisted by members of their own government administrations.

In Romulus, a citizen group and members of the Romulus Homeowners Association differ somewhat with their elected officials on various zoning classifications in the city's new Zoning Ordinance.

United they sought a referendum vote. Petitions with more than the required number of signers were filled with the city fathers. The city council approved holding a special election.

On Aug. 4, the voters gave their decision by approving the referendum.

The zoning ordinance approved by the old township board and subsequently by the city council was the basis of the community's master plan.

Today both city council and a Zoning advisory committee known as "Citizens for Better Zoning" composed of representatives of nearly every walk of life and from the community's 11 voting precincts are working together for a zoning ordinance that will meet all objections raised and fulfill the needs of the future growth and development of Romulus.

In Sumpter Township, a citizens group initiated and formed the United Homeowners Association of Sumpter Township.

Members of this association and other Sumpter residents claimed some of their elected officials had failed them in their administration of township affairs.

They initiated a recall campaign but later lost in a Wayne County Circuit Court litigation on a "technicality". An appeal is pending.

United they presented to the voters a slate of association-backed candidates in the Aug. 4 election. Their slate won the Democratic nominations.

Homeowners Associations, Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees, Kiwanis, Lions Clubs and other service organizations are in the main united groups with specific purposes, goals and programs.

Democrats reflect a new mood

By DICK McKNIGHT

When the Democratic state convention meeting in Grand Rapids last weekend passed a resolution calling for withdrawal from Vietnam by Christmas, there was more than politics involved.

The resolution was so liberal that even the liberals in attendance were surprised that it passed. A majority resolution almost as strong as the minority resolution that was accepted reflected the same feeling: enough is enough in Vietnam.

A few years ago, many of us would have discounted a resolution coming from a state political party convention as irrelevant. We would have considered the opinion of the Michigan Democratic party not worth much where a matter of foreign policy was involved.

But recent events have given us a different view.

The war comes increasingly more into our lives as we face the problems of inflation, a slowing economy and curtailed federal programs.

The cost of running a war has begun to catch up with us, and it is the economic pinch that inspires us to new action.

Problems we were only faintly aware of in 1965, when the war was at its height, have now become insistent for solution. It is obvious now that we should never have hoped to put off these solutions for very long.

What the Democratic party was saying in Grand Rapids was not just that the war is wrong in principle. There are many people who believe that, but they do not make up the majority of the Democratic party.

What was really being said was that American priorities have changed, and that we must recognize that fact. A war that seemed very important to many people a few years ago, has now proved itself to be a drain on the national that we cannot afford.

Domestic problems, postponed for too long, have become more important than the war.

Where politics enters is in the fact that President Nixon appears to believe that the war cannot be ended soon enough to find immediate solutions to domestic problems. If the Democratic rank-and-file thinks the war should be ended and can be ended by Christmas, there is a political issue in the making.

The voters will probably decide the issue in November.

Mailbox problem plagues subdivision

To The Editor:

I'm writing in regard to the mail problem the people in Independence Square have come up with.

When we moved in to the subdivision we were promised door-to-door delivery for our mail. Consequently, everyone went out and bought mail boxes for their houses.

Now the post office is giving us motorized curb mail delivery. Most people are refusing to purchase another mail box for the side of the street. Why should we have to purchase two mail boxes when eventually they'll have to give the 750 houses door-to-door delivery? They are also planning to put up some apartments and they surely can't deliver curb side to an apartment, or can they?

In a subdivision it is almost impossible to have curb mail delivery. This requires people with two cars on the right hand side of the street to park one across the road in front of someone else's house so the curb can be open for the mailman. When company comes it is almost impossible for them to park their cars.

We've submitted a petition to the post office in Belleville but we still have not gotten any action on our problem. They said if they give us door-to-door delivery they will have to give it to other people. Well I think it's about time our post office was up-dated to today's ways.

Goose Lake heritage is a campaign issue

Goose Lake's scruffy heritage of uncontrolled drug abuse is putting new zing into historically mundane political campaigns.

Everybody is getting a piece of the action.

It is the first arena developed in the campaigns of Gov. Milliken and State Senator Sander M. Levin and the first round showed both to be in mid-season fighting trim.

The issue — rising from the three-day rock festival in Jackson county where marijuana and harder drugs were sold openly — is taking the play away from taxes, parochialism and jobs.

Public alarm is cresting on the campaign trails.

Milliken made a statewide broadcast from his office on a Sunday night to spell out his seven-point plan to ban a recurrence. State Police Director Col. Fredrick E. Davids said violence would have resulted from arrests inside the park.

Levin, the Democratic candidate against Milliken Nov. 3, said Milliken didn't tell it straight and demanded air time to give his version. It was granted and he will appear in a similar format.

Each accused the other of making drug abuse a political issue, which — despite the oratory — it is now.

Community - school concept studied

By BYRON ANTCLIFF, Superintendent of Huron Schools

Residents of the Huron School District will have an opportunity to participate in a variety of activities come September. The Huron Board of Education has entered into an agreement with Eastern Michigan University to assist the Huron School District in developing a community school program.

The Huron School District has employed Roger Benner as its community school director. It will be the responsibility of Mr. Benner to establish programs that will appeal to everyone in the community. Meeting the needs of the people through education, recreation, social programs and other activities is the general purpose of community school programming.

Mr. Benner comes to Huron after serving the Montabella Community School system as community school director. Having received his Master of Arts degree in community education at Central Michigan University, Mr. Benner is a doctoral candidate at Michigan State University.

He attended the Enabel Workshop on the MSU campus, which ended on Aug. 7. Mr. Benner, married and the father of two sons, will have his office in Huron High School.

Parents as well as students are strongly urged to respond to the questionnaire that each resident of Huron School District will receive in the mail, the Huron Schools Reporter, within a week or so. Programs will be scheduled according to the requests of the community. Here is an opportunity for each person to get involved in whatever class or activity which meets his or her needs.

Community school, what is it? This might be a question you would like answered. The community school concept is not new or innovative. It is sometimes compared to the "little red school house" days when the school was used in a multiple of ways — for academic learning, social gatherings, town meetings and other activities scheduled to meet the needs of the community.

Working people still buy Nixon approach

By Charles
Bartlett

Central Falls, R.I. — The workingman's attraction to Richard Nixon has not so far been dissipated by the economic slump, spotchecks here and in Indiana indicate

The alienation of the worker from his traditional political loyalties was evident in a poll of 10 persons in this factory town on the fringe of Providence. The sample included 7 Democrats and 3 Independents who cast 5 votes in 1968 for Hubert Humphrey, 4 for Mr. Nixon and 1 for George Wallace is standing firm but the others say they would vote 5 to 3 for Nixon over Humphrey, 5 to 2 for Nixon over Edmund Muskie, and 4 to 4 in a race between the President and Edward Kennedy. 8 say they approve of Mr. Nixon's performance as President and only 2 disapprove. Support for his war policy is almost unanimous.

Today the Wallace backer

Only 3 out of 10 think life is better than it was 10 years ago and 4 think it is worse. Racial tensions and inflation are cited as the chief aggravations but only 3 of the 10 feel Mr. Nixon could do more to stop inflation. The reaction is evenly divided on his family assistance plan, with 5 in favor and 5 opposed.

"This town wasn't bad when it was all Irish, French and English," said a voluble Irishman. "But now we've got the Portuguese and the Latins and some blacks. We've got lots of crime and welfare. People are living better but it's a more hazardous existence."

A similar pattern of thinking emerged from a sample of 10 industrial workers (7 Democrats, 2 Republicans, and an Independent) in Evansville. There the swing to Mr. Nixon was even more pronounced. 7 voted for Humphrey in 1968 but only 3 would vote for him or any of the other Democrats today.

This political defection is the most tangible sign of what is being diagnosed as the demoralized mood of the industrial workers. The more subtle sign is an unusually high proportion of people who angrily refuse, often with a heavy accent, to discuss politics at all.

Many with low status employment are more apt than ever to dress up their job descriptions. Janitors invariably describe themselves as maintenance men. One lady said she did alterations. "I guess," she added, "you would say I am a seamstress."

Social security news

Q. My wife is 62. Can she get social security retirement benefits if I don't retire?

A. If she has enough social security credit of her own to qualify as a retired worker, she can collect whether you retire or not. But she cannot get benefits based on your work record unless you are retired.

Reader supports Republican ticket

To the Editor:

The reader's column in last week's Belleville Enterprise indicated that some people feel that the Aug. 4 primary assured us of a change in our Van Buren township government in November. That government consists of a seven (7) man board, two (2) of whom will not be up for election for two (2) more years.

A straight Democratic vote in November would merely elect three (3) new people. Therefore, the new board would end up with four (4) old members and these could exercise control.

This same column pointed out that a change is desirable, which I agree is the feeling of most people. In order to insure that a significant change in our township government is effected, we should select the Gollwitzer Pro. team. These people give us an opportunity for a real choice which we have not had for many years.

Close inspection will show that well qualified people are available for election on the Republican Ticket.

Cherie Combs of Plymouth, age 22.

To be eligible for these trophies, riders had to enter three specified events in each of the designated classes.

By popular request an open reining class and an open trail class were added to the program. Ten ribbons were given in each class. First place winners were: Guy

Klein, in reining and Janet Alderman in trail.

Capably handling announcing duties was Mel Woods, 4-H leader and president of the Wayne County 4-H Horse Leaders Association. He was assisted by Wayne Pankey, 4-H parent of The Mustangs Club.

Mrs. Virginia Melcher and teen-age members of the Saddle Bums 4-H Club of Romulus, and Mrs. Beverly Lambert of Allen Park leader of the Shenandoah 4-H club, assisted with clerical duties in the registration booth.

All proceeds realized will be used by the 4-H Fair Association to further boys and girls work in Wayne County.

The show chairmen wish to sincerely thank William Younglove, 4-H Youth Agent, leaders, parents and members who helped to make the show such a complete success.

Morris cited by committee

Carl W. Morris, 54, of Romulus, one of Michigan's leading educators, has been cited by the United States Emergency Committee for Full Funding of Education Programs.

Morris, who is presently president of the Romulus Community School District former vice president and now treasurer of the Wayne County Intermediate School Board, is the legislative agent for Michigan Association of School Boards with many assignments in Washington, D.C.

The coveted citation, signed by Charles M. Lee, executive secretary, U.S. Emergency Committee for Full Funding of Education Program, and U.S. Representative Charles Joelson, member of the U.S. House of Representatives' Appropriations Committee, states.

"Know ye by these presents that Carl W. Morris served with distinction in the Joelson Amendment fight in 1969 in the United States House of Representatives by which was added $894.5 million to the budget of the United States Office of Education for the fiscal year 1970.

"It was only through perseverance, diligence, and intelligent labor, such as was displayed by the aforementioned person, that a milestone was reached in American education."

Parents salute little leaguers

Two hundred parents and friends honored 95 boys who composed the seven teams in the Romulus Youth Baseball Association's Pony League at Banquet held Aug. 20, at the Romulus Progressive Hall, 11580 Ozga Rd.

Trophies for participation and sportsmanship were given to each boy.

Championship trophies were presented to the members of the Morgan "Pirates" team. Mel Morgan sponsor of the team, was presented with the championship trophy.

Second place trophies went to Reel Realty team and the sponsor Mickey Reel.

The highlight of the evening took place when Mel Morgan arrived with his guest, Tiger players, Gates Brown, Ike Brown and WWJ-TV. 4 sports announcer Al Ackerman.

The group received a standing ovation from the crowd as they entered the hall.

The Tiger players and Ackerman answered questions and signed autographs for the crowd.

They brought two autographed balls from the Tiger players which were presented to the lucky boys whose name was drawn.

The boys were Mickey McMan and Manuel Delarosa.

MRS. PAUL D. GUBACI

Couple wed at Bethany Church

Holding a bouquet of white carnations centered with a dozen yellow roses and a detachable corsage of white mums, carnations and yellow sweetheart roses, Connie Cecelia Ely walked to the altar of Bethany Baptist Church to become the bride of Paul D. Gubaci.

Escorted by her father, Connie appeared in a toe-touching gown of silk organza, the raised waistline, high neck and cuffs on the long bishop sleeves being accented with Venice lace. The A-line skirt was adorned with French hand-embroidered lace with a built in train cascading from a Dior bow at the back.

A Camelot headpiece of matching lace frosted with seed pearls secured her three-tier veil which featured a long flowing mantilla.

REV. JOHN LOSEN presided at the seven thirty nuptials before an altar graced with white glads, mums and poms. Mrs. Losen accompanied Mrs. Dortha Vance of Trenton as she sang.

Matron of honor Mrs. Ann Redfield of Southgate wore a full-length gown of aqua and peacock roganza over taffeta with white Venice lace on the waist, neckline and cuffs of the bishop sleeves. A cluster headpiece of chiffon leaves

Michelle 'showered'

TWO SHOWERS this past week kept bride-to-be Michele Owne busy with the happy task of unwrapping scads of presents and then looking them over again and again as she planned where each item would go in her new home.

The first of the three parties was held Monday with about 12 guests, mostly relatives of the prospective bridegroom, answering invitations to the miscellaneous event.

Bonnie Morris and Wanda Shackelford co-hosted the evening at the former's home on Alva Drive where several bridal-theme games were enjoyed. After the honoree had unwrapped her gifts a dessert luncheon was served.

THEN ON Wednesday, two of Michele's aunts, Pat Sawyer and Gerry Weston, entertained at a noon luncheon - the day the weatherman decided to set the 'mood' for the party as he literally deluged the area. And it was a slightly damp group of ladies who finally sat down for the party.

The dozen guests, battling the elements as they drove into Dearborn to the Sawyer home, were from Sterling, Southfield, Ypsilanti, Wyandotte, Dearborn and Belleville. Punch was served and the ladies were later seated in the dining room where fresh roses and blue tapers centered the table. Card bingo followed with each guest receiving a prize.

Michele then opened all kinds of pretty things for her future kitchen with the help of Bonnie Morris who's to be in the wedding party.

The third shower was held this past Sunday after the deadline for society news so we'll have the details on that next week.

Trinity Episcopal Church has been reserved for Michele's September 5 marriage to Tom Everard of Ypsilanti.

THE CHESTER J. Snys were very pleasantly surprised when they answered the phone recently and heard their son's voice all the way from Tokyo, Japan.

Sp/4 Snys is currently enjoying R and R leave after serving eight months in Vietnam. Chet not only talked to his parents, but his fiancée, Mira Bennett, his sisters, Connie, Cindy, Carol, Christine, and Cheryl, and his brother, John.

Chet, who's currently serving with the 101st Airborne Division, will complete his tour of duty in December and is expected back home at that time.

Sharon's feted

SHARON HARVEY, who'll speak her nuptial vows this Saturday, August 29, to Robert Rea, was honored at a second bridal shower recently. Held at her apartment in Wayne, the party, tagged 'miscellaneous', was planned by Nancy Schmatze.

About 15 fellow teachers and close friends gathered for the evening which centered around several games, a light lunch, and mainly, re-newing old friendships.

The United Presbyterian Church in Plymouth has been reserved for the wedding.

Home again

GETTING BACK to 'old routine' after an extended summer vacation on the West Coast are the Edward Hedges and their two daughters, Nancy and Nora. While away, the foursome made their quarters in La Jolla, California and from there branched out to view the surrounding area.

Included on their list of pleasant memories was their visit to Balboa Park in San Diego where they heard the Navy Concert Band and a program of organ selections on the world's largest pipe organ. They also particularly enjoyed the time spent at International Village there as they visited replicas of foreign homes where ethnic foods are served to 'callers' and where guides are dressed in native costumes.

Other highlights of their trip were a cruise in San Diego Harbor where they saw four aircraft carriers in port; a day at the San Diego Zoo; a drive to Tijuana, Mexico; and a visit to the Coronado Hotel which is world-famous for its history of prominent guests - kings, queens, political figures, screen personalities, etc.

Woods-Lockwood wed

Grace Baptist Church is scene of wedding

Tall candelabra set among vases of white gladiolas and pink carnations formed the background at Grace Baptist Church, Belleville, as Rose Marie Lockwood and Harry L. Woods exchanged nuptial vows and wedding bands.

Rev. Kinniman Crawford presided at the August 1 ceremony with some 100 close friends and relatives attending the seven o'clock rite.

Donna Coggins was at the organ to provide bridal selections and Ed Williamson served as soloist.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Lockwood of 17546 Sumpter Road, Belleville, and Harry A. Woods of 117 St. Harris, Ypsilanti, are parents of the young couple.

Carrying a bouquet of white gladiolas, Rose Marie entered the sanctuary with her father. For her wedding day, she donned a formal gown designed of summer satin overlaid with eggshell-white antique lace. The little fitted bodice featured long, full sleeves and a scoop neckline. The full skirt was gathered at the high-rise waistline and set with princess seaming.

MR. AND MRS. MERLE E. TOUSE

Merle Touses mark 40th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Merle E. Scovill, Glenn Touse, and Touse of 232 Roland Street, Belleville, marked their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday, August 9, at an open house hosted by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Touse, at their home on Angola Street.

Guests from St. Petersburg, Florida; Harvey, Illinois; Columbus, Ohio; Hillsdale, Ypsilanti, Flint, Grand Blanc, Union City, St. Louis, Milan, and Trenton signed the guest book circulated by the honored couple's granddaughter, Jennifer Touse, and her two friends from Birmingham, Cyndy and Suszy Norman.

Pouring at Sunday's happy event were Mrs. Catherine Krebs, Mrs. Gale Touse, Mrs. Glen Touse, and Mrs. Dale Scovill. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. James Touse, Mrs. Winifred Gault and Mrs. Larry Button. Also assisting were Mrs. Joseph Moon and Mrs. Thomas Norman.

The seven who attended the wedding in 1930 were Willard Snowball, best man; Robert Touse, ringbearer; the Gale Touses, Mrs. Dale Indian Mounds at Chillicothe, Ohio; Blenco Glass Works at Milton, W. Va.; and Monticello, Va.

On the way home they visited the Wright Brothers' Memorial at Kill Devil Hills, N. C., Ft. Raleigh on Roanoke Island, toured a tobacco plant at Durham, and called on friends at Burlington, N.C., coming home over the Blue Ridge Parkway and touring the Atomic Energy Museum at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Mrs. F.W. Beasecker of Liberty St. and her sister, Mrs. Bernard Powell of Bloomfield Hills recently returned from Cape Cod where they had spent three weeks vacationing at South Harwick, Mass.

Mrs. Gayle Bliss and son Scott of Moline, Illinois, have been guests this past week of her parents the Paul J. Clarks, of Liberty St.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lester of E. Huron River Dr. were dinner guests on Sunday evening of last week of Ann Arbor friends, Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Pickus.

Her illusion veil drifted to floor length from a headpiece of white roses.

AS HER sister's honor attendant, Mrs. Charles Richmond of Pontiac, appeared in a toe-touching frock of orchid dotted swiss with full sleeves and a full skirt attached at the empire waistline. Her headpiece was fashioned of white roses and orchid veiling and the basket she carried contained white baby mums, orchid-tipped carnations, baby's breath, and tendrils of ivy.

Wearing identical pink ensembles were the two bridesmaids, Kathie Davis of Ypsilanti and Karen Grodi of Ann Arbor.

The bridegroom's five-year old sister, Lori Woods, served as flowergirl in a pink dotted swiss dress, a miniature version of the attendant's frocks.

Best man was Larry Smith of Ypsilanti, the bridegroom's college roommate. The corps of ushers included C.E. Richmond of Pontiac, brother-in-law of the bride; Greg Parsons of Canton, Ohio; Ed Woods of Winterville, Ohio; and Jim Woods of Massillon, Ohio, all cousins of the bridegroom.

At the reception which followed in the church, Mrs. Lockwood greeted the 100 guests in a sleeveless rose-colored moire frock with a matching lace coat. Her corsage was of white carnations and white mums.

Since returning from a two weeks honeymoon in Wyoming, Colorado and Iowa, the newlyweds made their home at 151 McHattie street, South Lyon.

The new Mrs. Woods graduated from Belleville High School in 1969 and is a student at Eastern Michigan University. She is also employed at Weber's Inn, Ann Arbor.

Her husband, a graduate of Mt. Pleasant Area High School, spent two years at Penn Technical Institute of Pittsburgh and is now working at the General Motors Proving Ground in Milford.

MRS. JOHN R. DUKE

Golden wedding day is observed

On Monday, August 17, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Opificius, Sr. of 16247 Merriman Road, Romulus, observed their golden wedding anniversary. They have lived at their present address, and have seen many changes come to this area throughout the years.

The couple has three daughters and one son: Mrs. Harry Childers (Alma) of Hudson, Michigan; Fred, Jr., Mrs. Steve Balowski (Lucille) and Mrs. Robert Howard (Lillian), all of Romulus. The Opificiuses also had 12 grandchildren, one of which is deceased; and two great grandchildren.

BESIDES THE many greetings and best wishes they received from their many relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Opificius were delighted and happy to receive greetings from the President and Mrs. Nixon and from Governor Milliken.

Relatives did not hold a formal celebration in the couple's honor due to the ill health of Mrs. Opificius; however on Saturday, August 22, their children hope to take the couple to Frankenmuth for a family-style chicken dinner.

Engagement told

The engagement of their daughter, Dawn Borgman, to Douglas John Huff is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Borgman of 14675 Hoelt Road, Belleville.

Miss Borgman graduated from Lincoln High School in 1968 and is currently working as a clerk-typist at University Hospital Pharmacy, Ann Arbor.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Huff of Westland is a 1964 graduate of Wayne High School. He later attended Northern Michigan University and is presently an apprentice pipe fitter for Local 636.

No definite wedding date has been set.

In Pennsylvania

Meg Milligan is wed to Lt. John R. Duke

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, in Glenmoore, Pennsylvania, was reserved August 19 for the morning ceremony which united Margaret Eleanor (Meg) Milligan and Second Lieutenant John Randall Duke in holy matrimony.

The Very Reverend Harry Riddle Johnson officiated the double ring rite before an altar appointed with two vases of stock and baby's breath with pots of green ivy centering the window sills.

The eleven o'clock nuptials united the daughter of former Lake Pointe Pass residents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton Milligan of 10th Avenue and the Beach, Barnegat Light, New Jersey, and the son of John H. Duke of Modesto, California and Mrs. Edward M. Allemand of Millbrae, California.

THE BRIDE'S only attendant was Mrs. Michael Spencer, the former Mary Jahr, of E. Lansing, Michigan, and best man was the bride's brother, George H. Milligan of New York City.

Her headpiece was a large triangle scarf in matching fabric which tied behind the neck. Completing her bridal finery was a nosegay of stephanotis, baby's breath, sweetheart roses, and camellia foliage.

Pork can be gourmet food item

Have you ever thought of pork as an economical gourmet food?

It can be. Pork lends itself to an infinite array of seasonings, accompaniments and cooking methods, according to Marilyn Mook, food specialist with Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension Service.

Herbs such as caraway, marjoram, thyme, sage, and basil have a special affinity for pork, as do such spices as cloves, ginger, pepper and curry.

Fruits and vegetables can enhance the flavor of richly browned pork roasts and chops, Miss Mook added. Tart apples, cranberries and oranges, and sweet fruits like prunes, raisins, peaches and apricots combine especially well with pork.

Salads can feature some of these tart and sweet fruits. Cinnamon apples, applesauce and cranberry-orange combine as well with fresh pork as raisin sauce does with baked ham.

A tart vegetable like kraut, or sweet vegetables such as squash and sweet potatoes are good accompaniments to fresh pork and ham.

Instead of limiting your choice to the more expensive chops and loin roasts, choose from the wide variety of low cost cuts of fresh and cured pork — pork blade steaks, smoked shoulder roll, pork rib and sirloin chops, boneless picnic, smoked pork shoulder, pork shoulder butt, pork sausage, and pork liver.

A good browning and thorough slow cooking will bring out the best flavor of any pork cut and will make it juicy and tender. You should roast pork in a 325-degree oven and use a meat thermometer to avoid either overcooking or undertaking, said Miss Mook.

Pork roasts will be juicy and flavorful, and safe when cooked to 170 degrees internal temperature.

MRS. SPENCER also held a nosegay, hers being comprised of yellow daisies and baby's breath tied with avocado streamers. Her pastel yellow frock of summer crepe was styled with a high waistline and short puffed sleeves both traced with floral trim. Her hair vow was in matching crepe.

At the wedding luncheon which followed at Jimmy Duffy's in Doylestown, Pennsylvania, Mrs. Milligan received in a white cotton pique dress with a modern motif of avocado and aqua flowers and organdy aqua scarf flowing over the shoulders. A green bow and corsage of white gladiolas completed her ensemble.

Meg graduated from Belleville High School in 1967 and attended the College of San Mateo in San Mateo, California where her bridegroom graduated in 1969.

The newlyweds are now living in Augusta, Georgia while Lt. Duke is serving with the U.S. Army at Fort Benning.

MISS RODOSALEWICZ

December 18 is their altar date

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rodsalewicz of 39571 Huron River Drive, Romulus, are announcing the engagement and coming wedding of their daughter, Diane, to James Allen Copeland.

The bride-elect is a 1970 graduate of Belleville High School.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Copeland of 29881 Van Horn, Boston, has been working for Firestone Steel Products in Wyandotte.

A December 18 wedding at St. Aloysius Catholic Church, Romulus, is being planned.

Schools get grant

Romulus Community Schools have been approved for a grant from Eastern Michigan University for a Community School Education Program for the 1970-1971 school year.

This program will take many directions during the first year. The main focus at this point is a Community College Center Program, which will be available to Out of School Youth as well as adults.

The only requirement necessary is a willingness and desire to participate.

The program is designed to up-grade individual skills, high school completion for diplomas, as well as the two-year college preparation program.

The community college center will be located in the senior high school building.

Registrations will begin on Sept. 8.

Community Use of School Facilities

General Conditions -- B (Facilities Are Not Available For The Following Purposes:) (paragraph 1) -- "School facilities may not be used for the teaching or promoting of any doctrine of a subversive nature which intends to undermine or overthrow the government of the United States."

Does this policy exclude organizations such as the SDS or other known Communistic or radical groups?

Most of the policies are not objectionable to the citizens of Huron Township. In fact they are very sound policies. All we have to do now is elect a board of education that will do their homework and see to it that these policies are carried out and our children will receive the education they deserve.

Romulus releases registration schedule

A schedule of school registration for new students attending Romulus Community Schools for the 1970-71 school year was announced Monday by William Jakad, assistant school superintendent.

All new students attending Romulus schools are asked to register early according to the following schedule:

All new kindergarten and elementary students may enroll at their appropriate school from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. week days from Aug. 23 to Sept. 8. Families who enrolled their children for kindergarten last spring need not re-register.

New junior high students may register at the Romulus Junior High School from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Aug. 24 to Sept. 8.

New senior high students may register at the Romulus Senior High School from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Aug. 24 to Sept. 8.

Counselors will be available both at junior and senior high schools to assist new students to set up their class programs during this period.

On transportation schedules, school officials announced that school buses will pick up on the same schedule that was in effect last school year.

The only exceptions are those students affected by the revision in the elementary schools attendance areas.

The parents of those students affected by the revision will be notified by letter as to the bus schedules, Jakad said.

Mackinac Bridge walk to start early this year

The 13th Annual Mackinac Bridge Walk will get under way a half hour earlier than usual, at 7:30 a.m. on Labor Day morning, Monday, Sept. 7, it was announced today by Prentiss M. Brown, Chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority.

Once again Governor Milliken will participate in the 'World's Greatest Walking Event' and weather permitting he'll lead close to 20,000 men, women and children on the annual trek over the historic Straits of Mackinac," said Brown.

"The Labor Day Mackinac Bridge Walk has grown into a widely popular Michigan tradition since that rainy morning in 1958 when then-Governor Williams led some 65 members of the International Walkers Association over the bridge.

The popularity of the bridge walk, the only time pedestrians are permitted, has grown phenomenally - attracting people of all ages, from all walks of life and from all over the Midwest.

"Pleasure walking is the main aim of the event, but for those who want to, the International Walkers Association will conduct speedwalk races for men, women, boys and girls with medals for winners, starting at 7:15 a.m. There is a nominal registration fee and contestants can sign up for the race at the Bridge fare plaza (north side) prior to the 7:15 a.m. starting time."

Walkers are urged to be in St. Ignace the night before the walk. The city by the Straits rolls out the red carpet annually for Labor Day walkers. The Pere Marquette Pageant, "The Black Gown Tree" is presented free of charge on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 4, 5, and 6. This is the dramatic production which depicts the life of Father Marquette, who founded St. Ignace 299 years and explored the Mississippi, opening up the Midwest for subsequent pioneers.

Bridge walkers are reminded that transportation northbound on Labor Day morning will be slow and congested. Walkers should keep this in mind. Nobody will be permitted to start walking after 10 a.m. and the bridge will be cleared of all walkers by noon. That is why being on the north side on the night before is so important.

North and south motor vehicle traffic is maintained during the walk on the two west lanes of the Bridge. However, congestion often develops southbound and crossings are slowed down until noon. Travelers returning to the Lower Peninsula are advised to make their plans accordingly.

It is not known whether Governor Milliken will attempt to break Governor Romney's 47-minute record

Study aided by gift

A proposed recreational study for the Romulus community received a financial assist last Friday.

The assist was in the form of a $2,500 check contribution by the Romulus Progressive Club, Inc., a non-profit corporation.

The check was presented to Dwayne Martin, chairman of the Romulus Recreation Commission by Elmer A. Johnson, president of the club.

The money will be used to help finance a long-ranged professional study of the recreational needs and programs for the city of Romulus, it was reported.

Results of the study will be used by the city in its request for recreational funds under the provisions of Michigan's Clean Water and Recreation Program.

An earlier application for state recreational bond funds made by Romulus under township rule (Romulus adopted cityhood last May 7) failed to win state approval as the application did not have long-ranged plans for the community's proposed recreational program.

3 earn degrees at WMU

More than 2,550 Western Michigan University students who completed their requirements following spring and summer sessions were awarded diplomas at the university's Aug. 14 commencement.

Among the graduates were the following from the Belleville area:

Margaret Ann Maddux, 42751 Judd Rd., who received a bachelor of science degree and a provisional certificate in elementary education, and Jerry Wayne Fant, 13150 Edgedale Dr., who received a bachelor of arts degree in business administration.

And Alan David Piwinski, 250 Liberty St., awarded a bachelor of science degree and a provisional certificate in elementary education.

Of the total 126,315 shareholders of Detroit Edison stock at the end of 1969, 85,197 lived in Michigan and 72,140 of those are Edison customers.

Dale A. Nichols named supervisor

The Romulus Community Schools' Board of Education has appointed Dale A. Nichols, 37, of Warren, Mich., Community School Supervisor.

Nicholas, who has already assumed his new duties, is married. He and his wife, Helen, are parents of three children: Dale Robert, 10; Susan Loretta, eight; and Jon Noel, three. The Family presently resides at 14033 Huff Dr., Warren.

The young educational and athletics leader, attended Wayne State University, University of Detroit and Eastern Michigan University. He received his Bachelor of Science Degree from EMU in 1959, and his Master of Arts Degree in January, 1966. A degree for Educational Administration was received from U of D in 1965.

Nicholas taught Physical Education in elementary school in Ann Arbor and was counselor for emotionally disturbed children of Hawthorn Center, Northville.

He taught in secondary schools in Plymouth, Ypsilanti and Warren.

He was head basketball coach and head golf coach for Ypsilanti Public Schools (1960-64). And head football coach (six years 1964 to present) at Warren Public Schools.

During 1965 to 1968, Nicholas was department chairman of Health, Physical Education and Athletics.

While attending EMU, Nicholas served as assistant football coach (1965).

Authority offices moving

For the first time in almost 20 years the Detroit staff of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority will be located in new offices effective Monday, Aug. 31. The new address is:

Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, 600 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. 48226. The Authority retains the same phone number: 961-5865.

The announcement was made today by David O. Laidlaw, director of the Authority. He said the HCMA will occupy the 11th and 12th floors of the Law Center Building (formerly the Citizens Building), located at the corner of Woodward Ave., and East Congress.

Krajewski petitions for Sumpter recount

A petition for a recount of Aug. 4 primary election returns has been filed with the Sumpter Township Clerk by Richard Krajewski, Democratic candidate for township treasurer.

Krajewski, who 18690 Savage Rd., Sumpter, was defeated by seven votes. He received 407 votes to 414 for Bertram Bradley, Democratic incumbent in the election returns.

Sumpter has five voting precincts and Krajewski seeks a recount in all five. He ran as a member of the "Parraghi States Senate has split the support of the United Homeowners Association for Sumpter. Elmer Parraghi was nominated for township Supervisor.

In announcing the filing of recall petition, Krajewski stated that he wants to sincerely thank all those who voted for him and appreciated the time and effort expended in his behalf.

Date of holding the recount awaits results of certification of Detroit and Wayne County Aug. 4, primary election results.

LeCesne named school principal

An elementary school principal in the Willow Run School District and former Romulus Community Schools District Attendance Supervisor and Junior High School Counselor has been appointed principal of the Beverly Elementary School, 35408 Beverly Rd., by the Romulus Board of Education.

The appointment of LeCesne as Beverly School's 1970-71 principal was announced by William Jakad, assistant school superintendent.

He replaces Eugene Barr, 43, who will take over the principalship of the new Merriman Road Elementary School in the new school year.

LeCesne is married and resides with his wife and two children at 3723 S. Burn St., Inkster, a city that ranked him as the Outstanding Young Man of the Year in 1969. He also has been active in Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Inkster City Council.

A graduate in elementary education from Xavier University in Louisiana LeCesne holds a Master of Arts Degree from Eastern Michigan University. His professional experience, in addition to two years spent in Romulus, includes four years of elementary teaching and two years as an elementary principal.

His interest in community affairs has led him to serve on other committees such as Dearborn-Inkster Human Relations Council, Willow Run Community Action Committee and the Outdoor Education Committee of Willow Run.

Want the higher interest of a certificate with the convenience of a passbook? Then move your money to Manufacturers. Open a 5 3/4% Time Deposit Account with a two-year maturity... and get a passbook instead of a certificate so you can watch your savings grow.

Start with a deposit of $500 or more and get 5 3/4% compounded continuously. Additions of $50 or more can be made at any time. Each deposit matures in two years.

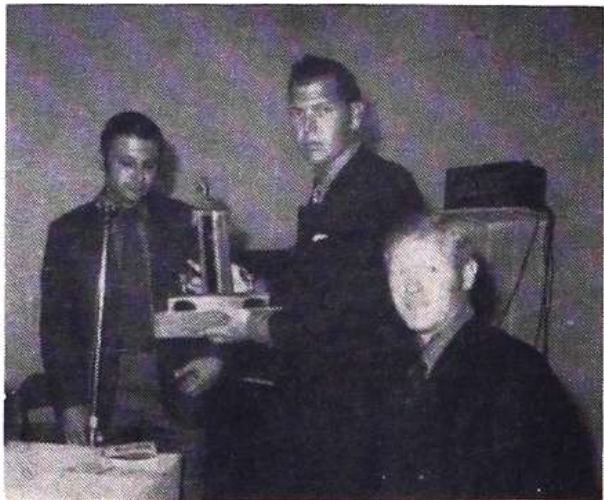

Want a shorter maturity period? Manufacturers also offers a 5 1/2% Time Deposit Account in passbook form with a one-year maturity. Minimum deposit is $500; additions of $50 or more may be made at any time.

So if the combination of high bank interest and passbook convenience appeals to you, move your money to Manufacturers—"that's my bank."

St. Aloysius invites residents to Annual festival

Father Joseph Kernosek and the people of the St. Aloysius Parish, 11280 Ozga Rd., Romulus, invite all local residents to attend the eighth annual Homecoming Festival on the parish grounds, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Sept. 5, 6 and 7.

On Sunday, Sept. 6, CKLW-TV's "Mr. Woodini" will present his magic show from 3 to 4 p.m. and will give free autograph pictures to the children.

On Monday, Sept. 7, Buck Buchanan, his Sheriff and loyal Indian friend, "Deyo" will have a special performance for the kids from 3 to 4 p.m., and will also give free autographed photos.

Buck, known as "El Pistolero", will perform a shoot-out with his partner "Archie Schultz" and will give a talk on gun safety. There will also be an authentic Indian Dance by "Deyo".

The church's famous Chicken or Ham Dinners will be served on Sunday from noon to 5 p.m. Home-made Polish Kielbasa sandwiches can be purchased daily at the hamburger Villa on the parish grounds.

Visitors are urged not to miss the existing "Moon Walk" as well as the many booths and rides. The following awards will be given away at the festival's grand raffle: Chevy Impala two-door Hardtop; 6-wheel All Terrain Vehicle (Amphicat); Philco Stereo; Zenith 18 in B & W Portable TV. Philco AM & FM radio.

See you at the St. Aloysius Parish Homecoming!!

Northline closed police chief says

Northline Rd., between Middlebelt and Merriman Rds., has been closed to all traffic, Romulus Police Chief Jacob J. Koch announced Monday.

The approximately one-mile stretch of east-west road was ordered closed following a joint study and investigation by the traffic and safety division of the Wayne County Road Commission and Romulus Police Chief.

Signs and barricades were put up on the road early last Friday. They will remain indefinitely Koch said.

He also announced a partial closing of Merriman Rd., north of Superior, one-half mile south of Northline Rd. Only local traffic is permitted.

Northline Rd., (in the section ordered closed by police) has been used by area drag racers for some time.

Despite warnings to Squadron returns from test

The members of the Metro Emergency Services Senior Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol (CAP) have returned to their western Wayne County homes this week after traveling to Caydon for their Air Force Effectiveness Test.

Lt. Edward DeZomits of Romulus, was named communications officer. Chief Warrant Officer Edward Williams of Dearborn Heights was assistant communications officer.

Warrant Officer Berta DeZomits of Romulus and Warrant Officer Lillian Cantrell of Taylor were in charge of the message center.

Other seniors and cadets from the Wayne-Romulus Squadron and the Cherry Hill Squadron also took part.

Freeway stopping prohibited

Stopping, standing or parking will be banned soon on about 2.5 miles of M-39 (Southfield Highway) in the cities of Allen Park and Lincoln Park, the Department of State Highways has announced.

The restricted area will extend from I-94 in Allen Park to Lafayette in Lincoln Park, the department said.

Representatives from the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, the cities of Allen Park and Lincoln Park, the State Police and the Highway Department agreed on street parking was interfering with free movement of traffic and a danger to motorists.

The stopping, standing or parking ban is authorized in a traffic control order signed by Henrik E. Stafseth, state highway director, and Col. Fredrick E. Davids, state police director. It will be enforced as soon as signs are posted.

Bakery opens gets top award

A new bakery has opened in Romulus.

The new business venture, known as the Rama Bakery, is owned and operated by Albin R. Hanson formerly of Romulus and now of Detroit. The bakery is located at 11630 Ozga Rd.

Operations at the bakery started two weeks ago but formal announcement was made Monday.

Hanson is a recent recipient of the "Best of Class" award won in this year's U.S. Bakers Bake-Off competition held under the sponsorship of the Pillsbury Company.

His entry combined strawberries and sour cream in a Sour Cream Cake.

The bake-off competition is designed to recognize the bakers of America for the individuality and craftsmanship which have made bakery goods the standard of excellence to the American homemaker. It also recognizes individual bakers who have discovered unique applications for bakery goods, and it enables bakers everywhere to share their creativity.

Where can they be ?

Planning time for the reunion of the Wayne Memorial High School Class of 1961 is at hand, and help is needed from members of the class in locating former classmates.

Those having information are asked to call Dave Willett at 728-4520, or Dona (Rippe) Zuckerman at 728-0547.

Rallies set for women

A week of rallies boosting equality for women has begun. It will reach a high point Wednesday the 50th anniversary of the ratification of women's suffrage, with a planned women's strike.

Romulus gets first motor vehicle receipts

The city of Romulus will receive $28,176 in the distribution of second quarter receipts to the Michigan Water Vehicle Highway Fund, Henrik E. Stafseth, director of the Michigan Highway Department, announced.

The payment represents Romulus' first participation in the highway fund since its incorporation into cityhood in May 7 special election.

Receipts to the Motor Vehicle Fund are distributed quarterly to Michigan counties, cities and villages. Areas under township rule do not share in the distribution as their main roads and streets are, in most cases, maintained by counties.

Second quarter receipts are up nearly $14 million over the same period last year, Stafseth reported.

The net receipts of the highway fund during April, May and June amounted to $87.1 million, an increase of 19.3 percent compared with the second quarter of 1969.

Highway Fund receipts are derived from motor vehicle license plate fees and a state tax on gasoline and diesel fuel, collected by the Department of State.

4-H scholarships total $1.4 million in 10 years

A total of 286 scholarships valued at $166,700 are offered this year to current and former 4-H members. These bring the dollar amount of educational grants given during the last decade to $1.4 million.

The figures were compiled by the National 4-H Service Committee Chicago, which obtains funds from private sources.

Some 45 of 60 donors contribute funds for scholarships which range from $300 to $1,600. Each business firm or foundation sponsors a specific program such as safety, or underwrites scholarships to be used in pursuing specific courses of study such as forestry.

Several companies have been supporting 4-H in this manner for about 50 years. Among the pioneers are Montgomery Ward; International Harvester Co.; The Santa Fe Railway System; Chicago and North Western Railway Co.; The Sears-Roebuck Foundation and Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corp.

In the learn-by-doing 4-H program, scholarships are awarded to national or regional winners who usually are high school juniors or seniors, or college freshmen.

There are 45 such programs which range from achievement to veterinary science.

The scholarships can be used for a regular four-year college course or in vocational schools, short courses, business training, nursing and the like.

Among other scholarship donors of long tenure are The Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.; Coats & Clark Inc.; Westinghouse Electric Corp.; Eli Lilly and Co.; Simplicity Pattern Co. Inc.; Standard Brands Inc. Allis-Chalmers; Carnation Co. and Ford Motor Company Fund.

4-H program are supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service with program awards arranged by the National 4-H Service Committee.

Information on specific program may be obtained by contacting the county Extension office.

DANIEL MURRAY

Romulus board names new school principal

A new principal has been appointed for the Gordonier Elementary School, 29814 Smith Rd., by the Romulus Board of Education, William J. Kadak, assistant superintendent of schools, announced.

He is Daniel Murray, 39, of 32911 Martin, Livonia. He replaces Delores Wells who has moved to California.

Murray holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Wayne State University and a Master of Arts Degree from University of Michigan. His teaching experience covers a period of 12 and one-half years in Detroit.

The new school principal is married. He and his wife, Evelyn are parents of three children, Jonathan, 11; Margaret, 10; and Timothy, 7.

His community activities include Little League baseball coaching, Cub Scout Master, church elder and four years as Sunday School superintendent, and formerly on the camping committee of Livonia "Y".

He belongs to a Square Dance Group, enjoys hunting and fishing and during the summer months is an Immigration Inspector at the Detroit-Windsor Tunnel.

Romulus schools hire 49 teachers

Water system contract let

One of the last major contracts needed to complete the regional water system's Lake Huron Water Plant has been approved by the Detroit Board of Water Commissioners, policy-makers for the Detroit Metro Water Department (DMWD).

A $10,420,000 contract to build filter beds and an administration building has been awarded tentatively to the low bidder, Butler Construction, of Salt Lake City, DMWD General Manager Gerald J. Remus said.

The contractor will build concrete structure for 40 filter beds in a 620 by 290-foot building and equip half of the beds with troughs, piping and instrumentation. The remaining filters will be equipped in the future.

In operation the filters will use layers of granulated anthracite coal, fine sand and gravel to screen out impurities. Operation and washing of the filters, and most other plant functions will be controlled from the administration building, Remus said.

Other related contracts are well underway, including those for settling basins, chemical building, pumping plant, the 26 1/2 mile pipeline from the plant to a DMWD pipeline already in service between Detroit and Flint, the intake in Lake Huron, and a six-mile tunnel from the intake to the plant.

The last major contract, for construction of a building to house pumps to push water under pressure into the pipeline toward Detroit and Flint, will be awarded soon.

DMWD is erecting the filtration plant on a site about five miles north and west of Port Huron a mile from the Lake Huron shoreline. The intake is five miles from shore. Remus said the plant should be in service by 1972.

Greenfield clean-up work progressing

The recent fire at Henry Ford Museum at Greenfield Village in Dearborn, though an unfortunate loss, was not as serious as originally feared.

Cleaning and resetting of the unharmed collections is complete and the major portion of the Mechanical Arts Hall is now reopened to the public. Automotive, railroad transportation, airplane collections, gun collections and the steam powered machinery are intact and open to visitors.

The Decorative Arts Galleries in the front portion of the Museum were untouched and have been open to the public since the second day after the incident.

Although the American Drama Festival repertory theater was unharmed, it has been officially ordered closed during the refurbishing of the damaged area of the Museum which is directly behind the stage doors.

The forthcoming fall schedule of Famous Early Movies will be resumed on Sept. 27.

Social Security News

Q. My wife collects social security as my dependent. She just started working and will make more than $1,680 this year. How will this affect our checks?

A. Your check will stay the same, because your benefit is only affected if you work. But your wife's benefit will be reduced according to the amount she earns.

The Dearborn social security office at 5141 Oakman Blvd. is open Wednesday evenings from 4:30 to 7:30 for the convenience of those who are unable to visit the office during the day.

Signs are available

Free "NO SMOKING" signs will be provided to all physicians, dentists, businesses, hospitals and other institutions that do not permit smoking on their premises.

Requests for signs should be made to the TB and Health Society, 153 Elizabeth St., Detroit 48201, or by calling 961-3712.

Residents graduate

Some 2,500 University of Michigan students expect their degrees at the end of this summer.

Among these students are the following area residents:

Sandra Kay Thurman of 9446 Biddle Ave., Bachelor of Arts degree in Fine Arts; Douglas H. Knight of 30547 Dru, Master of Arts degree in Math. Both are from Romulus.

Belleville residents are: LeRoy Arthur Hallett of 22281 Sherwood, Master of Science degree in Environmental Health Science; Lynn Christie Nunley of 46715 Ayres, Bachelor of Arts degree in Education; Barbara JoAnn Rogalle of 45311 Harmony Lane, Master of Arts degree in Library Science.

VICTORY SMILE — Westland's Al Whited breaks out in smiles after he shot a 140 at Fellows Creek to capture the 11th annual City Golf Championships. Whited, a familiar figure in area amateur golfing, has dominated the tournament since its inception. Ninety-six golfers — a record — took part in the meet.

Sports meridian

Ripping up a golf course

By TOM MOORADIAN

Soft-spoken, good-looking Westland's veracious Al Whited has much in common with Jackson's verbose pro golfer, Dave Hill. Aside from the obvious that both are outstanding golfers and love the game, they also have a unique talent of ripping up golf courses—with words.

The uninhabited Hill recently had such kind words for one of the courses he found while on the pro tour — branding the golf environs as "fit only for cattle"—that he was censured by tournament officials.

There were no officials around however Saturday when Al Whited strolled into the club house at Fellows Creek Golf Course after completing and taking the first round lead in the 11th annual City Golf Championships, and proceeded to cut up the course before his colleagues.

"This course isn't bad," remarked Whited who has been playing golf for nearly a quarter of a century. "Naw, this course isn't bad — it's atrocious."

Whited, with a golfer's acuity, pin-pointed "the atrocities" and, those who were in the hearing range immediately agreed.

"The tees, the grass and the general condition of the course are bad," said Whited. What's it take to replace the divots?" he asked.

If you're not a psychiatrist, or a thick-skinned politician or a hard-nosed sportsman, you have no business engaging the 38-year-old Taylor Center High School principal in dialogue on or off the course — he'll proceed to cut you up with his innuendoes so neatly that the Surgeon General of the United States would even be proud of the incisions.

To assure himself of a friendly gallery, the champ also has his pretty wife, daughter and son along the side lines.

Whited, who wouldn't be at the City Tournament if it wasn't for a bit of frustration at the Michigan Open where he missed the cut by one stroke, pointed out "that Fellows Creek has tremendous potential."

"But, at present, that's about all it has. I play here once a year, and this is that once."

Also vowing that he "won't be back," was rookie Wayne councilman Ker McKee.

"This is the last time that Denny and myself will be out here," said the usually reserved McKee. "We won't spend another dime on this course."

Karl Stewart, a veteran golfer who was among the "originals" to compete in the tournament when it was organized years ago, was disappointed in the progress of development of the course, which is located in Canton Township off of Lotz Rd.

"When they first built this it was really something. But as the years went by they let things get out of hand. This is really a good golf course if they would just take care of it."

"When you compared this layout with that of Shady Hollow, there is really no comparison. Shady Hollow is not a good course, but the guy over there works at it."

Golfers are known to play hide-and-seek when their ball goes astray, they do not, however, expect to play the same game when the fire it into orbit straight down the fairway.

"Heck, I hit one right smack down the middle the other day on this course and couldn't find the ball," said Claude Howard, another veteran golfer.

If these gentlemen will excuse me, I must interrupt to ask: "If these are true pictures that they paint, why, then not bring the tournament out of the jungle and into the open?"

When you cough up $900 — and that's what 96 golfers did to play at Fellows Creek Saturday and Sunday, then I would think you should get the best.

Don't you?

Tigers have 17 lettermen

Emerson gets to work

By MIKE HENDRICKS

Despite the return of 17 lettermen, first year Belleville High head football coach, Keith Emerson, knows that there is "plenty of work cut out for him and the Tigers, before unknown quantities become known qualities."

"It's too early to say anything," said coach Emerson, who took over the chores as head coach from Jim Richendollar who resigned last year to become junior high school principal in Belleville. "On paper, we do have 17 lettermen, but what the quality of those lettermen is, time and time alone will tell."

"Give me a few weeks of practice and scrimmages and then I will give you some answers," the veteran coach said.

Emerson came to Belleville after serving 10 years as athletic director of Robichaud High School and coaching at Redford Union.

Though Emerson is new to Belleville high football he isn't a complete stranger to this area. Robichaud and Belleville have met several times on the gridiron. And this year, the two non-league rivals will renew their acquaintances. The two teams will meet in what should be a spirited contest on September 25 on the Belleville field.

Emerson has been working to familiarize himself with the Belleville football scene, and he already knows of two bright factors in Belleville's line up. Mark Pellicchia, Belleville's All-Conference tackle will be back for another crack at Tiger opponents as will fleet-footed halfback and all-around athlete, Gerrade Pettus.

Pettus is the key to the backfield. He has power, guts and everything that goes into the making of an outstanding athlete.

Also under pressure will be Glen Reinhackle who is being tutored by the "rookie" coach for the quarterback slot. Reinhackle saw only limited action in last year's campaign which ended with the Tigers one victory shy of (Continued on Page 14)

It's same old story at Romulus

Romulus High will return to the gridiron this fall with a team characterized by its lightness, inexperience, but hopefully speed and enthusiasm.

Romulus coach George Pratt admits that the loss of 15 seniors from last year's squad might cause some hardship for the coming season.

Pratt hopes to dip into the ranks of last years successful junior varsity team and come up with several capable players to fill some of the Eagle's line holes.

One from the junior varsity ranks Pratt will be calling on will be junior quarterback, Ken McMann. McMann is expected to take charge of the Eagle offense and the hopes of the football fortunes of the Romulus team could well depend on how well this promising athlete responds.

In junior varsity competition, McMann showed great promise, completing nearly 62 percent of his passes.

McMann's passing arm fits in neatly with coach Pratt's game plans which calls for more throwing than in previous years.

McMann's passing will be complemented by the running of two returning backfield men, Darell Butler and Brent Hamilton. It is around these two that Romulus will center its running attack. In coach Pratt's words, "The backfield will be fast and it is this speed which will enable us to set up a running game."

Romulus' lack of size is the main reason why Pratt is concentrating so much on the passing game. The Eagle mentor acknowledges that his team will not be very heavy and that this could be a problem. Because of the team's size he says, "We are going to attempt to out run everybody and our speed will be the key as we will not be able to go nose to nose."

"Our offense will probably be characterized by a lot of option plays. If our line gives McMann enough time we should be able to move the ball well. We will not be able to throw the bomb often, but rather establish a short quick gaining offense and that is what we will be after."

The Romulus defensive story is much the same as the offense. The backfield may well be the Eagle's strongest (Continued on Page 14)

1st division stars win in 9th, 5-2

With the coveted Romulus Softball crown tucked away in Anchor Block's safe for the second straight season, the league reached its climax last week with its annual All-Star game.

And the First Division, made up of players in the top five, and the Second Division All-Stars, players from the second half of the standings, mixed — and the outcome, of course, was a First Division All-Star, 5-2 victory.

They won't be in the First Division — if they couldn't beat the Second Division — right?

The first division all stars bested the second division stars in a tight defensive ball game 5-2. The game went nine innings so that all the players could take part in the game. Thirty two players got in the game as both managers, Norman McLenon and John Pinter, emptied their benches.

The first division scored one in the first when Rick Heggie singled Les Pennington reached on an error and Rick Spearman singled Heggie home

They made it 2 to 0 in the second when Pitcher Chuck Hazen singled, George Mitchell singled and Hazen scored on Dick Viemo's single.

The score went to 4 to 0 in the sixth when Dan Longfellow walked, Gary Hubbard singled, took second on the throw to third both scored on John Adomitis' single.

The second division stars got back a pair in the bottom of the sixth when Mike Pratt singled, Joe Flint walked and Ed Smith singled Pratt home and Flint scored on a throwing error.

The first division stars scored the final run of the game when Harmon Schonfield singled and scored on singles by Burr Good and Gary Krischano in the ninth inning.

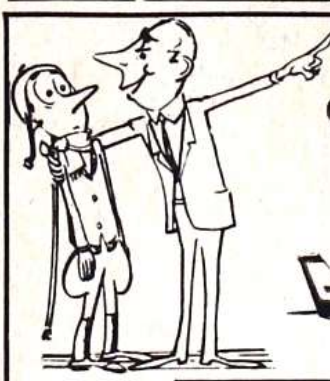

Mike Pratt of the second division stars was voted the most valuable player of the game when he had two hits in three trips at bat and turned in a defensive gem in the ninth when he caught Ron Dick's fly and fired a strike to the plate doubling Burr Good trying to score after the catch.

After the game trophies were presented to Anchor Block league champs and Alden Electric the playoff winners.

Could be Huron year

Huron High enters the football season with an abundance of backfield, talent, a weak front line and an emphasis on defense.

Coach Lee Smeltzer has nine returning lettermen from last year's squad which compiled a 2-5-1, won-lost-tied record.

The offensive backfield is pretty well established with four returning backs. The group of returnees is led by Co-captain Glenn Dregansky who as a halfback has been the Chiefs leading ground gainer for the past two years.

Dregansky was also the team's top scorer and was an All-Conference selection in 1969.

Dregansky is joined in the backfield by his running mate and the team's second leading rusher, senior Tom Umin.

Butch Suemnick will be back for another tour of duty at the quarterback spot and the senior also expects to receive help from Chuck Inman in the backfield.

The front line remains a mystery for Smeltzer. Only two blockers from last year's outfit are back. The two returning linemen are tackle and co-captain, Jack Gracia, and Ron Thompson a left guard.

Despite some of the teams deficiencies, Smeltzer is confident about his team's future. He said, "We don't have as many good players as we did last year, but these kids have more confidence and we will win more ball games because of it."

"Last year's team was good, but they didn't believe it until the end of the season when it was too late. We shouldn't have that problem with this bunch."

Smeltzer added that the schedule shouldn't be as hard as last year's, and that the Huron conference teams are much weaker.

Smeltzer prides himself in the defensive abilities of his ball clubs and the 1970 version of the Huron Chiefs is not to be an exception.

Belding searches for local groups

A state-wide talent search is getting under way to bring some of Michigan's best performers to the 65th annual Belding Labor Day festival Sept. 5 to 7.

Offered to talent winners will be hundreds of dollars in prizes for amateur performers plus an opportunity for professional rock groups to win a $1000 Custom Electronics sound column and 200 amp amplifier.

Talent contestants will have an opportunity to perform before upwards of 40,000 persons — last year's

Sod farm gets bid

The Huron Sod Farms of Romulus was the low bidder on landscaping bids for the new North Junior High School, located at McBride and Beck Rds., Irwin Von Distinon, business manager of the Van Buren Public Schools, announced the awarding of the bid Monday.

The seven bids received for the school's landscaping program were opened last week by the school board.

point, but the line with only two returning veterans remains a question mark.

Ron Kersey and joined by seniors Dan Chapo and Tony Hoffman.

Kersey may be the man to watch on defense as he returns after earning a starting position as a freshman on last year's squad.

In a battle with Hamtramck last year, Kersey showed what he is made of by making 13 solo tackles. It is this kind of performance that Pratt will have to get from all three of his defensive backs if the Eagles are to come up a winner this fall.

The defensive line is bolstered by two returnees from last year's campaign. Gary Martin who doubles as an offensive tackle. Defensive end will join Mike Cessazaar who has been shifted from defensive end to the center position. The other positions in the line are unknown qualities as they will be determined only after all the candidates from last year's reserve squad battle for each spot.

Pratt is optimistic about his team's chances. He expects to improve on last year's 1-7-1 won-lost-tied record and is hopeful of taking his team a lot further than many expect it to go. He said, "This team is more enthusiastic than last year's. The kids have been working out on their own for some time now."

Area students will perform at state fair

A Garden City girl and a Wayne youth are among several hundred of Michigan's best high school musicians who will perform in 16 free concerts at the Michigan State Fair which opens Friday and runs through Sept. 7.

First soprano Elizabeth Bentz, 15, of Garden City, is a member of the Michigan State Fair Honors Choir. The choir will perform Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 2, 3 and 4, at 3 and 6 p.m. in the Music Shell and at 8:30 p.m. in the Coliseum.

Baseist Albert Mille, 34086 Currier, Wayne, is a member of the Michigan State Fair Honors Band. The band will perform Friday and Saturday, Aug. 28 and 29, at 1 and 6 p.m. in the Music Shell and at 8:30 p.m. in the Coliseum; and Sunday, Aug. 30 at 8:30 p.m. in the Coliseum.

The 105-member Michigan State Fair Honors Choir is new this year. E.J. Keirns, State Fair general manager, announced the formation of the choir saying:

"For a number of years the State Fair has honored top high school band musicians by inviting them to play in the Michigan State Fair Honors Band. This year, in addition to the band, we are having a choir to honor our top young high school singers."

Guest conductor of the choir will be Weston Noble, music department chairman at Luther College, Decorah, Iowa.

Famed conductor Frederick Fennell will lead the 100 member band. He is a faculty member at the University of Miami.

No more tapes

HOLLYWOOD — Jim Phelps, intrepid leader of the "Mission: Impossible" team will have a new method of operation when the CBS series returns next month for its fifth season.

Once a week for the past four years, the leader has sneaked off to an empty telephone booth or an old warehouse and, by prearrangement, found a tape recorder set up to give him an assignment. Then, with a muffled explosion and curl of smoke, the machine "self-destructs."

But no more.

"The tape business and the word 'self-destruct' caught on and then became a joke and a gag line," explained Peter Graves, who plays Phelps. "We didn't want it to be a joke, so we're cutting it out as a weekly device."

New cliches spoil 'Landlord'

The Mirisch Production Co. presents a United Artists release of the Norman Jewison-Hal Ashby production, "The Landlord," produced by Jewison, directed by Ashby, screenplay by Bill Gunn from Kristin Hunter's novel, music by Al Kooper. Color. Rated R. At the Fairlane with the following cast: Beau Bridges, Lee Grant, Diana Sands, Louis Gossett, Pearl Bailey, Marki Bey.

It is becoming increasingly ironic that the new wave of American directors, whose avowed aim is to sweep away the cliches of irrelevant filmdom carefully nurtured in the so-called golden age, are developing a whole new set of cliches.

But, where the old cliches — if cliches they were — at least served to entertain a generation nurtured on popcorn at the Bijou, the new cliches seem mainly designed to promote the artistic integrity of the director without furthering the medium.

This is not to say that experimentation is now welcome. A fast adherence to yesterday would have cost us the fine new wave directors ranging from Fellini in Italy to Bergman in Sweden to Mike Nichols here. And this doesn't say that every

State Fair prepares for million visitors

With the biggest lineup of talent and exhibits in its history, the Michigan State Fair opens this year on Friday and runs through Labor Day.

It's the top entertainment bargain of the year. A million are expected to attend. They'll see and hear free of any extra charge:

The Music Shell shows, featuring big-name stars. Sixteen horse shows in the Coliseum. The Grandstand shows, including the Hurricane Hell Drivers and the Mark Wilson Show. Livestock and crop exhibits. Fine arts and community arts exhibits, demonstrations, and shows. Commercial exhibits. Children's contests. A Fairgrounds full of music and fun.

E.J. (Jeff) Keirns, State Fair general manager, said the lineup of entertainment stars "is the best we've ever had."

The list includes Johnny Cash, the living legend, who'll perform in front of the Grandstand on Monday, Aug. 31, at 4 and 8 p.m.

On the fair's first weekend, the Music Shell will feature radio-TV star Art Linkletter; the Young Canadians, a sparkling group of youngsters who sing and dance up a storm; and the Friends of Distinction, a unique new singing group.

Paul Revere and the Raiders, with Mark Lindsay, will perform Sunday through Tuesday, Aug. 30-Sept. 1, with Charley Pride, a top country star, will be on stage Monday through Wednesday, Aug. 31-Sept. 2.

TV and movie star James Darren will appear Sept. 3 and 4, along with the Three Degrees, a singing and dancing group. The final three days of the fair will find Roy Clark and the stars of the TV show, Hee Haw, and Oliver, the popular singer, on stage in the Music Shell. On Sunday, Sept. 6, the Fifth Dimension will make a one-day appearance.

The Grandstand shows will feature the Hurricane Hell Drivers the first five days of the fair (through Sept. 1), and Mark Wilson and the Magic Land of Allakazam all through the fair.

In the Coliseum, there will be at least one free horse show each day, with ponies, Percherons, Appaloosas, Morgans, and Arabians being put through their paces by top riders and drivers. The Detroit Mounted Police will perform at each show. For the first three days, through Sunday, Aug. 30, Arthur Godfrey and his trained horse Goldie also will perform.

Michigan's farmers will bring in their top beef cattle, dairy cattle, swine, sheep, rabbits, pigeons and poultry.

In the Community Arts Building, bakers and seamstresses and painters and sculptors and hobbyists will show their work.

Continuous demonstrations will take place on the Community Arts revolving stage — needlepoint, flower arranging, decoupage, cake decorating, and other arts and crafts. In the auditorium, there will be fashion shows, cooking demonstrations, and even shows telling how to lose weight (with all those cookies around?)

Again this year, the fair continues its theme "Consumer Meets Producer," with state and commodity agencies striving to show the city dweller how his food and clothing are produced by his country cousin. Meat and dairy products will be on display, as will fruits and vegetables.

Many commercial exhibits also are scheduled at the fair.

Of course, the Gay Midway will be in full swing for all fun lovers. The traditional rides such as the Merry-go-round and ferris wheel will be there, along with a number of new rides and shows and Tombstone Territory, a re-created Old West village where stunt men hold "shootouts" at intervals during the day.

For the very young, Kiddieland will offer rides that are a bit tamer, along with a collection of young farm animals to see and pet and other attractions.

Every day at the fair is considered Agriculture Day by the State Fair. However, each day has been given a special designation.

experiment has to succeed. We learn from failures.

But it still doesn't explain what Hal Ashby has done to "The Landlord," a potentially engaging idea in which Beau Bridges, a youth disenchanted with his parents' wealthy life, sets off to be a slumlord.

"The Landlord" contains several scenes good enough to be framed. His opening encounter with his new neighbor is one. Here he is terrified by a bunch of clowning idlers, chases off a bunch of young car strippers, accidentally driving off with one of them hiding in his car who, when discovered, demands $2 for cigarettes or he will accuse Bridges of kidnapping him.

Then there is the marvelous confrontation between Pearl Bailey, one of his tenants, and Lee Grant, Bridges' frantic society mother. What a Jewish mamma solves with chicken soup, Miss Bailey meets with chitlins, pot likker and wine.

And Bridges, who has matured greatly as an actor since his abortive effort in "Gally, Gally," learns much from the trauma of fathering Diana Sands' baby, from living in his slum and from a visit to a black militant school. He also finds himself after a discontented life in his caricature world.

But Ashby couldn't leave well enough alone. He cuts

Bringing out facts in weird sea voyage

The strange voyage of Donald Crowhurst. By Nicholas Tomalin and Ron Hall. Stein and Day. $7.95.

1969, his unoccupied boat was discovered in the North Atlantic.

What had he been doing in the meanwhile? Supposedly he had been sailing around Africa, into the Indian Ocean and the South Pacific, around the tip of South America and back towards England.

His cryptic radio messages had given that impression. But actually it was all a hoax. He had been wandering around the South Atlantic all the time.

The authors have searched out a mass of facts about Crowhurst's whole life; have analyzed the logbooks that he left behind—true records and fake records—have mapped his real course and have delved into the physiological factors that led Crowhurst to commit a fake and then jump overboard when it became obvious that his hoax would be exposed.

What it all comes down to is that Crowhurst was a man who all his life had to be the center of attention. His preparations for the race were botched and incomplete when the sailing deadline came, but he could not back out without losing face. And then when he realized his fakery would be disclosed, he became completely irrational.

The authors have overloaded their narrative. In seeking veracity they have compiled too much detail, and only a patient reader can get through it all.

Yet for those with persistence, it is an interesting study in a frustrating drama of the sea.

RESOLUTION
Commissioner Berry moved the adoption of the following resolution:
WHEREAS, in accordance with the provisions of Section 18, Chapter IV, Act No. 283 of the Public Acts of 1909, as amended, this Board may, by resolution, absolutely abandon and discontinue any portion of any road under its jurisdiction upon or along which there are no buildings of any character; and
WHEREAS, that portion of the right-of-way of Grand Road in Sections 27 and 34 of Huron Township, T.4S., R. 9 E., Wayne County, Michigan, which is centered on the North and South 1/4 lines of Section 27 and 34 and which lies south of the southerly right-of-way line of South Huron Road (66 feet wide) and lies north of the southerly right-of-way line of the Penn Central Company (formerly Pennsylvania Railroad). The said southerly right-of-way line of the Penn Central Company crosses the North and South 1/4 line of Section 34 at a point distant S. 0 degrees 07'02" W., 414.15 feet from the center corner of Section 34 and makes a northeast angle of 39 degrees 11' 26" with the said N. & S. 1/4 line, being 0.93 mile of County road. ALSO: That part of the right-of-way of South Huron Road, 66 feet wide, in Sections 26, 27, 35 and 36, T. 4 S., R. 9 E., Huron Township, Wayne County, Michigan, described as beginning at the intersection of the south line of Willow Road with the center line of South Huron Road, distant 0.28 mile east of the west line of Section 27 and proceeding thence southeasterly across Sections 27 and 26 and part of Section 36 for a distance of 2.5 miles, more or less, to a point of ending on the east line of the west 1/2 of the west 1/2 of Section 36 are county roads under the jurisdiction and control of the Board; and
WHEREAS, there are no buildings of any character located upon or along said abandoned described county roads; and
WHEREAS, said county roads are of no use or benefit to the public for highway purposes;

Park attendance up Michigan DNR reports

Daily attendance and camping numbers, like the temperatures spurring them, are shooting upward at state parks in Michigan this season and they appear well on their way to reaching record highs in 1970, reports the Department of Natural Resources.

Figures tabulated by the DNR through late July show that Michigan's 76 administered state parks and recreation areas have drawn 11 million day users, about 1 million more than a year ago.

Through that same period, state park workers issued more than 231,000 camping permits, topping the total for the end of last July by 27,000.

For the entire 1969 season, state parks hosted a record 19 million day users and 409,000 camping families. Latest figures tallied for daily attendance and camping are running 10 and 13 percent ahead of the pace which set those high marks in 1969.

6,000 less than a year ago. This, too, says Dodge, indicates some progress has been made to provide more facilities to serve more people.

At last count, this season's sale of annual and daily motor vehicle permits had reached 540,650, an increase of 72,500 over the end of last July.

This season's higher attendance figure, by itself, might only reflect a higher level of repeat business. However, the upswing in permit sales reveals that a greater number of different people are being served by state parks in 1970, and that's an important goal in the DNR, stresses Dodge.

Youth for Christ to sponsor rally

The Huron Valley Youth for Christ will sponsor its first teen rally of the new school year on Saturday, Sept. 5, 7:30 p.m. at Ann Arbor Pioneer High School.

The rallies which normally draw 1000-1500 teens are usually held the first Saturday of each month. All are invited to attend. Admission is free.

This year's premiere rally will feature Bob Harrington, known throughout the country as the "Chaplain of Bourbon Street." His ministry is primarily in nightclubs, bawdy, go-go strip joints on Bourbon St., in New Orleans' French Quarter.

His wit and enthusiasm have made him one of the most sought after speakers in the country. He has five records on the market, and has appeared on such national radio and television programs as: Art Linkletter's House Party, the Joe Pyne Show, Don McNeil's Breakfast Club, and locally Joe McCarthy's "Focus" program.

A feature story concerning him was recently in Pageant Magazine. The 6 foot 2 inch ex-Alabama football player used to be an insurance salesman belonging to the exclusive "Million Dollar Club" because of his sales of $1 million in policies. He recently has written a book entitled, "Chaplain of Bourbon Street."

The Sept. 5 rally will also include trumpet soloist Gerald Franks. Franks works for the Conn Corporation and travels throughout the country giving clinics for them. He has appeared with Youngstown Philharmonic Orchestra, Youngstown, Ohio, and he was lead trumpet with the West Virginia University Symphony Orchestra.

As a music educator, Franks was instrumental instructor for four years at the Albert Gallatin Schools, Masontown, Pa., and is currently director of instrumental music at Grace College, Winona Lake, Ind.

In both clinic and solo performances, Gerald Franks displays unusually fine technique complemented by excellent musicianship.

The program will also feature the "Bluewater Teen Chorus." This group of youths placed second in the nation recently at the national competition at Winona Lake, Ind.

Mansfield steps up schedule

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield says he will step up the chamber's work schedule, including possible institutions of a six-day business week, in order to cut absenteeism among campaign-minded senators. Lack of a quorum prevented action Friday on a $5.2 billion public works appropriation bill.

While state park use is up this season, turnaway totals are down and that combination of things "suits us just fine," reports DNR parks chief Robert O. Dodge.

"Of course," he adds, "we wish our parks people didn't have to turn away anyone for lack of facilities and space. However, there are bound to be turnaways because we're in a catch-up situation, trying to provide facilities for the growing number of recreationists who keep pouring into state parks."

As of late July, state park personnel had been forced to turn away about 4,000 more camper groups than the year before, but this is a marked improvement over last season when that total at this stage was 61 percent higher than at the end of July, 1968.

The difference in narrowing this gap, Dodge points out, is that 800 new campsites were added to the state park system this season.

Day-use turnaways at state parks through the same late-July period this season stood at about 31,400, some

In Lansing Edison hearing set

LANSING — A $28.5 million rate hike sought by Detroit Edison Co. because of what the company termed "unprecedented increases" in certain costs over the past two years will be the topic of a three-day public hearing in Lansing next month.

The hearing before the State Public Service Commission is slated to begin Sept. 15.

Edison, which serves 1.5 million customers in 13 Southeastern Michigan counties, filed an application for the increase in early June, six weeks after receiving approval for its first rate hike in 21 years.

That increase, approved by the commission April 22, totaled some $6.5 million. The company, which had asked a $48 million increase, appealed the commission decision to the Ingham County Circuit Court.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley became involved in the rate case last month, when he filed a "notice of intervention" in which he asked the commission to direct the company to show cause why its rates should not be reduced.

Commission Chairman Willis F. Ward of Detroit said he hoped a decision on the increase application would be reached "as expeditiously as possible."

"The commission has indicated that it believes this and other rate cases can be more expeditiously determined if certain procedural steps are taken prior to the rate hearing," Ward added.

"One of these is the holding of the prehearing conference at which time Detroit Edison will furnish copies of its proposed testimony, exhibits and other working papers and a schedule of proposed rates and charges to accomplish the rate increase being sought."

Ward said such a conference, held Aug. 5, had been continued until Sept. 3.

At the earlier hearing, Ward said, the utility revealed the total amount of the increase being sought. Under procedures used in the past, Detroit Edison would not reveal this information until after it had presented its testimony seeking to justify the need for an increase, the commission said.

In some instances, the commission did not learn how much of an increase a utility sought until "many months" after the rate application was filed, Ward said. In addition, neither the commission nor the utility customers knew or could anticipate how the proposed increase would affect customers.

"The commission hopes the new procedures that are being used in the Edison case will enable us to reach a decision within six months," Ward said.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

Sorrowful expressions are heard with blended emotions of shame and regret every time one hears of an assassination, murder or a violent sudden death. Panicky pleas and promises all too often pantomime identical words and letters heard so many, many times before. But the vicious repetitions continue. Human life these days seems to be a cheap commodity.

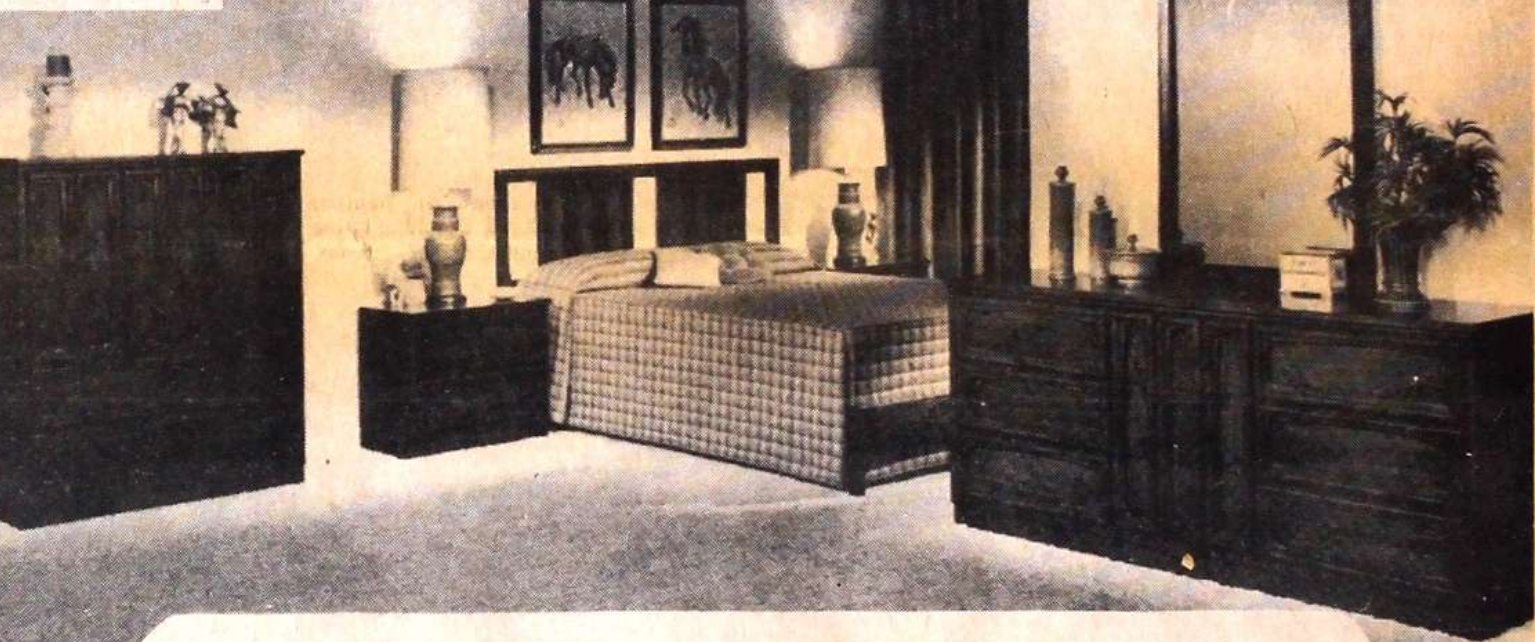

This attitude is a sad indictment of our times. The indictment is even more disgraceful in connection with traffic and highway deaths. Why - WHY is it that so many people fail to realize a steering wheel attached to three tons of automobile steel is far more dangerous, far more LETHAL than any trigger action gun ever invented? Why - WHY is it that people seem so indifferent to the horrible fact that in just the last thirty years - we repeat - in only THIRTY years, Americans have splashed more blood on highways and killed more people by automobile, than those killed on less bloodied battlefields in ALL our wars since 1775?

For your own protection, and for the safety of others, remind yourself of this every time you get behind the wheel, especially on week ends or holidays.

Wayne-Romulus cadets take state drill titles

For the second consecutive year the female drill team of the Wayne-Romulus Cadet Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol (CAP) has captured the state-wide championship in the female category.

The girls competed at the annual drill meet sponsored recently by the Michigan Wing of the CAP.

Members of the team are Cadet First Class Denise Valkos, 16, of 1214 Helen, Garden City; Cadet Airman Kathi Chesney, 14, of 25180 West Rd., Flat Rock; and Cadet Airman Debbie Garrison, 15, of 24004 N. Telegraph, Flat Rock.

Also Cadet Airman Shirley

Cantrell, 15, of 26050 Beverly, Taylor; Cadet Airman Susan Weiss, 14, of 13015 Briar Hill Rd., Carleton; and Cadet First Class Ily Austin, 15, of 34184 Ecorse Rd., Wayne.

Cadet Master Sergeant Delilah Almond, 17, of 13076 Poplar, Southgate, served as the team alternate. The team was trained and commanded by Cadet Captain Carol Chesney, 18, of 25180 West Rd., Flat Rock.

Cadets Carol Chesney, Austin, Almond, Cantrell and Valkos were also members of the 1969 championship team.

The competition, which was held at Selfridge Air Force Base north of Detroit, also saw the Wayne-Romulus Squadron male drill team place a close second in the male competition.

Members of the male team are Cadet First Sergeant Michael Martin, 18, of 7575 Berwick Dr., Westland; Cadet Second Lieutenant Fredrick Chesney, 17, of 25180 West Rd., Flat Rock; and Cadet Second Lieutenant Bruce Judycki, 18, of 31543 Alvin, Garden City.

Also Cadet First Sergeant Douglass Sciberras, 16, of 1244 Denise St., Westland; Cadet Staff Sergeant Vernon Huffaker, 15, of 35008 Richard, Wayne; and Cadet Staff sergeant Ronald Kennedy, 15, of 32312 Fairchild, Westland.

The team was commanded by Cadet Captain Neal Guernsey, 17, of 5402 Woodward St., Wayne.

Of a total 350 points possible in the competition, the Wayne-Romulus Cadet Squadron male team earned only 11 points less than the winning team from the Van Dyke Squadron.

Military drill is one of the many activities offered to boys and girls, 13 years of age or older, who are members of the CAP.

Western Wayne County is served by two Cadet Squads: the Wayne-Romulus Cadet Squadron which meets at Romulus Junior High School, 11401 Olive St., Romulus, and the Cherry Hill Cadet Squadron, which meets at the Cherry Hill High School, 28500 Avondale, Inkster. Both meet every Wednesday evening. The public is invited to attend.

The CAP Cadet program, in operation since 1933, offers Cadet members the opportunity for training in radio operations, search and rescue, private pilots ground school, military drill, survival, model rocketry and many other subjects.

STATE CHAMPS — The girls of the Wayne-Romulus Cadet Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol (CAP) recently captured the state CAP female drill team title. They are Cadets Denise Valkos, Kathi Chesney, Debbie Garrison, Shirley Cantrell, Susan Weiss, Ivy Austin and Delilah Almond. Team Commander Carol Chesney holds the trophy.

SECOND PLACE — The male drill team of the Wayne-Romulus Cadet Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol captured the second place trophy in recent statewide competition. They are Cadets Michael Martin, Fredrick Chesney, Bruce Judycki, Douglass Sciberras, Vernon Huffaker and Ronald Kennedy. Walt Guernsey is team commander.

Area's drinking water meets standards

Drinking water supplied to 3,800,000 southeastern Michigan residents meets all federal state water quality standards, Gerald J. Remus, general manager of Detroit Metro Water Department announced.

"The survey of 900 community water systems by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare tends to cast doubt on any water system not included in the survey," Remus acknowledged.

"The federal agency looked at our water system when they considered making us one of the nine target areas, but they never did, apparently because our water quality and our past record of quality wouldn't justify the study," Remus said.

"The survey has been in the mill since more responsibility for water quality standards was transferred from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare to the Department of the Interior.

"Since the American Water Works Association established new goals for water quality — higher than state and federal standards — two years ago," Remus said, "we're the only major city meeting them."

At the Department's four water treatment plants, state-licensed chemists supervise water quality and treatment procedures 24 hours a day. The City-County Health Department also inspects Detroit water.

The State's Department of Public Health inspects the water system and also establishes treatment plant design criteria and procedures, Remus said.

The federal Water Quality Administration regularly checks water entering the system for traces of heavy metals.

The Detroit's water also has met Public Health Service standards for interstate use — such as replenishing ships' drinking water supplies.

"All of these agencies have given us a clean bill of health," Remus pointed out.

Water for the regional system comes from two Detroit River intakes — one on Belle Isle, the second in the Fighting Island channel opposite Wyandotte.

The Department is building a $120 million water intake and treatment plant on the Lake Huron shoreline, expressly to maintain high quality.

"Water at the intake site, five miles from the American shore, has met Federal drinking water quality standards 70 per cent of the time over the last four years without any treatment at all," Remus emphasized.

The new Lake Huron plant will provide treatment similar to the system's four existing plants.

Water will first be screened, chlorinated, and fluoridated. Then chemicals to reduce odor and to settle out impurities will be added when necessary. Next, water will be filtered through granulated coal and sand to remove any remaining impurities. Before pumping it toward Detroit and Flint, more chlorine will be added.

Runway rebuilding starts at Metro

Work has started on a $3,683,000 project to strengthen the main runway at Detroit Metropolitan Airport so that it can handle jumbo 747 jets, it has been announced.

The Aeronautics Commission of the Michigan Department of Commerce said the contractors are working down to dusk to complete the work by Oct. 5.

The project calls for reconstruction of the center 80 feet of the 200-foot wide runway for a distance of 7,900 feet. The total length of the northeast-southwest runway is 10,500 feet.

Aircraft landing at Detroit Metro are using a parallel runway while the main runway is under construction.

Ann Arbor Construction Co. and Thompson McCulley Asphalt Paving Co., both of Ann Arbor, are the contractors on the project which is being financed with 50 per cent federal funds, 25 per cent state funds and 25 per cent local funds.

Battle of bands starred for fair

Prizes for original compositions have been added to the Michigan State Fair's Battle of the Bands competition this year, E. J. (Jeff) Keirns, general manager, announced.

Any Michigan teen-age group is eligible to audition for the "Rock" and "Soul" contests. Auditions will be held the week of Aug. 10 in the Music Shell on the Fairgrounds.

The top 35 bands will be invited to play in the "battle" during the fair, which runs from Friday, Aug. 28, through Labor Day, Sept. 7. The championships in each division will be decided on the final day of the fair.

Prizes go to first and second-place winners in each division. Special prizes for the best original compositions, will be judged by television and radio personalities.

Groups wishing to try out for the competition should contact Cleighton Melin, supervisor of entertainment and special events, at the Michigan State Fair, Detroit, Michigan 48203, or telephone (313) 368-1000.

Out of every dollar of revenue received by investor-owned electric power companies 22 cents is for Federal, state and local taxes Detroit Edison paid $88 million in taxes in 1969, compared to only 3.5 cents in taxes out of each dollar received by government-owned or financed power agencies.

Detroit Edison's gross plant investment rose to above the $2 billion mark early this year, and is expected to exceed $3 billion by 1973.

CARROLL RIGHTER'S

from the Carroll Righter Institute

General tendencies: Most everyone is apt to be emotional today and tonight. To put things in its proper perspective is wise. By being very objective, much can be achieved, especially whatever applies to home conditions and property matters.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Avoid doing anything that could spoil relations at home which are difficult enough now as it is. Stop being so belligerent. Try to get at the cause of things and quietly make right changes.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) If you take unnecessary risks, there is bound to be much trouble brewing. Think and act wisely. Put plan in operation to make work easier. Show you have good sense.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Showing allies that you are very wise where finances are concerned will gain their fuller cooperation in the future. Do more saving. Not a good time to make new investment. Bide your time.

Moon Children (June 22 to July 21) Don't be too self-centered and you get along much better with others and get ahead faster. Don't rely on that social meeting to solve some problem you have. Use your own good mind.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) You seem unable to express yourself as you want right now so wait before doing so ideally. Others come to you with their troubles, so be sure to help them as much as you can. Don't go overboard, though.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You want good pals to assist you with present aims, which is fine, provided you do not impose on them. You have one goal that is not to your benefit, so put it aside. Take no chances.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Wait for a better day when the planets are more favorable to have those talks with higher-ups and then you have more success. Keep steady and don't make changes that could be disastrous now. Show true balance.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You have many fine ideas but they need further study before putting them in operation. This is not a good day to deepen friendship with a new contract. Wait until later in the week.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Be your own worst taskmaster and get things done properly, keep the promises you have made scrupulously. Do not push that creditor so much. Annoying mate who is in an irritable mood is not good.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Try to understand what an associate has in mind and then you find that you can come to agreements easily. Stop wracking your brain about how to solve some problem. The solution comes to you easily tomorrow.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Trying to throw own work off on the shoulders of others would only make more trouble for you. Delve into it and get it done efficiently. Do whatever improves your health. Eliminate some bad habit that is ruining it.

Pices (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Be careful not to get into some risky venture that you would later regret, but keep busy with whatever is of proven worth. Instead of criticizing mate, show consideration and love. Make life happier for both.

If your child is born today... he or she will be one of those very efficient young people who is also very emotional, which is good, provided it is checked at the right time. Teach early to be more objective in dealing with others and thereby avoid trouble that could otherwise follow. Teach early to understand the motives behind others' actions and then dealing with them becomes easier and more effective. Homemaking, psychology and psychiatry work is fine.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!

Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Draper, supported by Canejo, that the Organizational Meeting be adjourned at 7:30 p.m. Motion carried unanimously.

The Regular Meeting of the Board of Education was called to order by President Carl Morris at 7:30 p.m. in the Board Office.

Roll Call showed Member Lovette absent. This is an excused absence for educational purposes. Messrs. McConnehy, Jakad and Janack were present.

COMMUNICATIONS:

Letter dated June 27, from Wayne County Community College requesting continued support and attaching resolution for board action.

Motion by Budd, supported by Draper, to endorse adopting the resolution supporting Wayne County Community College Proposition A. Ayes: 5. Nays: Oakley. Motion carried.

Letter received July 1, 1970 from David Delozier, Chairman, Community Relations Committee, Wellesley Townhouses, Inc. re busing children to Merriman Elementary School.

Mr. Delozier was present and addressed the board, reading a petition signed by some 297 petitioners requesting that board reverse decision to bus children living in Brairwood Townhouses to Merriman Elementary and permit children to walk to Cory.

The board explained that Cory is a 20-room school; can only accommodate 600 children and is currently at that level. Busing children from the Townhouses would mean one bus stop as opposed to a bus route; would also mean that the children who live and play together in the subdivision would be going to school together.

Board was asked what would happen next year when subdivision in the immediate vicinity of Merriman Elementary are fully occupied and enrollment from those subdivisions creates an overflow at Merriman.

The board explained that it would have to answer next year's problems next year. However, inasmuch as the Bond Issue was defeated, the next step to alleviate overcrowding would, of necessity, be half days.

Several other concerns expressed by the group: Would the children from the townhouses always be bused since they can be picked up at one bus stop? Is this group being discriminated against because they are a low-income group?

Mr. Delozier extended an invitation to the board to attend a meeting at the Townhouse Community Room at 7:00 p.m., Thursday, July 16th.

Discussion re proposed bond issues and millage elections.

The group thanked the board for listening and were in turn thanked by the board for their attendance and interest.

Motion by Draper, supported by Oakley, that Minutes of the June 8, 22 and 29 meetings be approved as presented. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Draper, supported by Canejo, that General Fund bills of $371,774.22 be paid when funds are available. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Canejo, supported by Draper, that Building and Site fund bills of $90,267.07 be paid. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Draper, supported by Budd, that the following bills be paid:

ESEA Title I	5,045.03
Adult Basic Educ.	186.20
Section III	6,367.12
Brkft Programs	753.96
Smr Head Start	626.00
NDEA	58.00

Motion carried unanimously.

Mr. Nault and Mr. Baum addressed the board regarding Athletic Policy for Romulus Community Schools. Mr. Baum was asked how publicizing the policy would be handled and several methods were suggested; one being that copy of Athletic Policy be sent to the home of each athlete to be returned with signature of athlete and parents verifying the fact that they had read and understood policy.

Other changes were suggested and Mr. Baum will return Athletic Policy for board adoption after revisions have been completed.

The athletic director submitted recommendations which include additional football bleachers and crowd control fence for visitors' side of field, having received a quote of approximately $4,080 to include 300-400 seat collapsible bleacher considered sturdy and serviceable, and 720 feet of fencing. Descriptive brochure on bleachers will be submitted for board examination together with delivery date and information re guarantee and reliability.

Board consideration requested for drainage tile on the second baseball field which would drain into culvert at south end.

Laundry facilities for the athletic department were discussed. Recommended that both laundry facilities and drainage tile be considered for inclusion in next bond issue.

Discussion of future for Romulus High in Twin Valley Conference now reduced to a 4-team league. Discussion of prospects for admittance into another league.

Motion by Draper, supported by Oakley, that Romulus High School give one year's notice of withdrawal from Twin Valley Conference. Motion carried unanimously.

Field Trip Policy. Discussion of policy as presented. The Director of M & O suggested that policy be enlarged to include a trip evaluation by transportation department. Suggested that principals be administratively charged with responsibility of securing trip evaluations from each teacher in charge of a field trip before that teacher would be permitted to take a second group on a field trip.

Resolution to borrow on Tax Notes:

Motion by Budd, supported by Draper, moving the appropriate resolution to borrow $1,250,000 in anticipation of the collection of operating taxes for the current year. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Oakley, supported by Budd, that Romulus Community Schools adopt the appropriate resolution to levy 30.4 mills on the taxable property of said district for the year 1970. Motion carried unanimously.

In-Service Workshop: The Superintendent recommended that Board authorize In-Service Workshop as presented and include Junior High School Social Studies teachers.

The assistant superintendent reported that he had received eight (8) resignations, making a total of 11 vacancies.

Motion by Budd, supported by Canejo, that the board accept the resignations of Walter Cerulla, Robert Hill, Jr., Judith Seydel, Sarah Baker, Joseph Landini, JoAnn Napoleon, Albert Duva and Ruth Turley as recommended. Motion carried unanimously.

Mrs. Diane Allen, Mrs. Jeanette Leech and Mrs. Judith Snabes were recommended for employment.

Motion by Draper, supported by Budd, that the aforementioned be offered contracts for the 1970-71 school year. Motion carried unanimously.

The Assistant Superintendent reminded the board of the one day indoctrination for new teachers.

Opening of bids for supplies for the 1970-71 school year.

Motion by Draper, supported by Oakley, that the bids be taken under advisement. Motion carried unanimously.

The Director of M & O reported on price quotations for signs on Gordonier Elementary School and Romulus Elementary School. Lowest quote received is $354.13 and $28.27.

Motion by Draper, supported by Oakley, that Director of M & O be authorized to purchase above signs as described, total price to include material, labor and installation. Motion carried unanimously.

The Director of M & O reported on bids received for painting of Beverly Elementary School, interior and exterior.

Motion by Oakley, supported by Budd, that Director of M & O be authorized to use his judgment in awarding this bid. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Budd, supported by Canejo, that the meeting be adjourned at 12:14 a.m. Motion carried unanimously.

The Special Meeting of the Board of Education held July 27, was called to order by President Morris at 7:35 p.m. in the board office.

Roll call showed members Oakley and Lovette absent. Messrs. Jakad and Janack were present.

Thank you letter addressed to the Wayne County Intermediate School District to be signed by the President of the Board was read for board approval. Approved.

Mr. Oakley entered the meeting at 7:38 p.m.

Letter dated July 27, from Mrs. R. L. Ostrowski and Mrs. S. Quasarano re bus transportation for children in immediate attendance area of Merriman Elementary School; requesting placement on the August 10 agenda.

Motion by Oakley, supported by Budd, that Mrs. Ostrowski and Mrs. Quasarano be placed on the August 10th agenda as requested. Motion carried unanimously.

A representative of Eberle Smith architectural firm made presentation for projected renovation of the old board office. Considerable discussion re permanent walls as opposed to movable partitions, inasmuch as the permanent walls would necessitate breaking into the floor in order to prepare proper footings.

Motion by Draper, supported by Budd, that plans and specifications be let for bids which will be due and opened at the Board Meeting of August 24th. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Draper, supported by Canejo, to accept Treasurer's Report as presented. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Budd, supported by Oakley, to pay general fund bills of $308,691.55, when funds are available. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Draper, supported by Oakley, to pay Building and Site bills of $672.14. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Budd, supported by Draper, to pay the following:
ESEA Title I	$203.24
Breakfast Program	50.33
Adult Basic Educ.	59.48
Summer Head Start	203.10

Motion carried unanimously.

Athletic Director, presented changes and revisions to proposed Athletic Policy as requested.

Motion by Oakley, supported by Budd, that Athletic Policy as revised be adopted by the Board of Education as of 1970. Motion carried unanimously.

Athletic Director reported on quotes received for bleachers and crowd control fence for the visitors side of the athletic field. A 400-seat bleacher would cost $2,466 installed. The crowd control fence — three quotes received; $1,821, $1,631 and $1,533.

Motion by Budd, supported by Draper, authorizing purchase of bleachers and fence as recommended at total cost of approximately $4,000. Motion carried unanimously.

The assistant superintendent submitted personnel recommendations.

Motion by Canejo, supported by Draper, that Educational Leave be granted to Jay Burns for one year as requested. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Draper, supported by Oakley, that Robert Brock, Raymond Gunnell, Janet Kemner, William Hardy, Merry Babkiewicz, William Freeman be offered contracts for the 1970-71 school year as recommended. Motion carried unanimously.

The name of Dale A. Nicholas was submitted and recommended for position of Community School Supervisor. Mrs. Burton spoke regarding appointment; outlining duties of position.

Motion by Oakley, supported by Canejo, that a one year contract, specifically stating that continued employment is dependent upon continued funding of Community School Program, be offered to Dale A. Nicholas for the 1970-71 school year. Motion carried unanimously.

Revised resume for In-Service Workshop on Cultural Relations reviewed and accepted by the board.

Report on construction progress of Merriman Elementary School.

The Director of M & O requested consideration of purchasing much needed floor covering for Romulus Elementary teachers' laboratory and lounge; Junior High School cafeteria, kitchen and foyer between circulating library and cafeteria which is used as an overflow area. Total cost — approximately $3,500.

Motion by Draper, supported by Christensen, to authorize purchase of floor coverings as recommended at approximate cost of $3,500. Motion carried unanimously.

Tally of supply bids submitted for board consideration.

Motion by Budd, supported by Oakley, to accept recommendation of the Director of M & O for awarding contracts to annual suppliers.

Motion by Draper, supported by Christensen, amending Motion adding; and pay Detroit Pure Milk .0549 per pint according to bid submitted. Amendment carried unanimously.

Vote on Motion. Motion carried unanimously.

Final report on School Lunch and Special Milk Program submitted for board information. Discussion on cost of cafeteria program and advisability of increasing price of daily lunches for professional staff and students at both Junior and Senior High School.

Director of M & O directed to take suggestions under advisement and make recommendations for the coming school year.

GUARDING THE MOON ROCK — This year's Wayne County 4-H Fair is showing a moon rock, the first such exhibition in Michigan. It was brought back to earth by Apollo 12's crew. Above are members of the security guard detail for the moon rock display. 4-H Fair Queen and court and president of the 4-H Fair Association. Guarding the moon rock (left) is William E. Hilden, of the Van Buren Township Police Department, and Wayne County Deputy Sheriff Peter Bukis (right). Robert Hayward (center), president of the 4-H Fair Association, is shown admiring the moon rock. In the rear is 4-H Fair Queen, Miss Nancy Tillotson and her court.

Apollo 11, moon rocks scheduled for Lansing

The second journey of Apollo 11 has begun.

The command module that carried astronauts Neil Armstrong, Ed Aldrin and Mike Collins to man's first walk on the moon has begun a 50-state, one-year tour of the United States. It is scheduled for display at the state capitol in Michigan from Aug. 28 to 31.

Almost as much planning and coordination that went into Apollo 11's first trip has been required for the tour. In fact, it may have been easier to get the capsule to the moon than to the fifth states.

The tour is being sponsored by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration with transportation being provided as a public service by the Heavy Specialized Carrier Conference of the American Trucking Association, Washington, D.C.

The capsule, along with some moon rocks that were collected by the astronauts and the space suits they wore, is being transported on a specially built, 14-foot "lowboy" trailer.

The width of the trailer exceeds the legal maximum highway width and a special permit had to be obtained in California and accepted in each state.

For safety reasons, the capsule will move during daylight hours only and will not move on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

A total of 125 drivers from 78 trucking companies have been furnished to move the trailer and its two escort cars on their 13,500-mile journey. A team of three drivers, headed by a "driver supervisor," will move the capsule between the cities.

Price quotations on interior identification signs for Merriman Elementary School were submitted:

Kutch Company	$254.85 for 90 signs
Supersine	$247.43 + $135.00 for installation

Bid specifications required prices to be furnished with installation included.

Motion by Draper, supported by Oakley, that the low bid to furnish and install interior signs at Merriman School be awarded. Ayes: 5. Nays: Budd. Motion carried.

Director of M & O discussed rubbish pick up and disposal problems. Will make recommendations at next board meeting.

Motion by Draper, supported by Oakley, that the meeting be adjourned at 11:45 p.m. Motion carried unanimously.

Davis B. Draper, Secretary Romulus Board of Education

Similar to the Apollo missions, the driver supervisor is chosen from the previous trip's team so that each supervisor will be experienced in the moving of the capsule.

The tour scheduled was prepared so that the convoy will have the best weather conditions possible throughout the tour — north in the summer and south in the winter. The capsule will be in a different state capitol each weekend.

There was difficulty in establishing a value for the historic capsule so, to play it safe, the Heavy Specialized Carriers Conference is carrying a $10 million insurance policy on it.

The Lansing "capsule commander" will be driver Robert McGoffin from Grand Rapids. McGoffin was selected because of his good driving record, neat personal

Men in service

U.S. Air Force Airman First Class Dennis R. Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warner of 295 Carleton Rockwood Rd., Carleton, Mich., has arrived for duty at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

Airman Warner, a fire protection specialist, is assigned to Detachment 1, 317th Tactical Airlift Wing, a unit of the Tactical Air Command which provides combat units for air support of U.S. ground forces. He previously served at Nakhon Phanom Royal Thai AFB, Thailand.

The airman is a 1968 graduate of Airport High School.

appearance and conscientious attitude towards his work.

He will be in charge of the convoy en route to Lansing and will have to sign a receipt slip for the capsule — making him totally responsible until it's turned over to a NASA official at the next capitol.

This doesn't seem to bother him, however.

"I've driven 14-foot rigs before," McGoffin says, "and I've signed for a lot of expensive cargo. I look at it as just another shipment. The only difference is that this shipment can't be replaced."

Family planning unit unveiled

Richard Q. Howlett, acting director of the Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity has announced the arrival of their new $30,000 Mobile Health and Family Planning Unit.

Howlett said: "Phillip C. Sims, board chairman of the Wayne County Economic Opportunity Committee and Mrs. Dorothy Evans, chairman of the Health Services and Family Planning Sub-Committee announced that an unveiling of the unit will be held today at the Ecorse Neighborhood Action Center, 421 Salliotte, Ecorse, Mich.

Howlett added: "As a result of accepting delivery of the unit we will be able to deliver family planning services to hundreds of women in six out-county communities including: Ecorse, Wyandotte, Brownstown, Huron, Romulus, and Canton Township."

Mrs. Evans, family planning sub-committee chairman, further added: "Our staff has already conducted a concentrated health and family planning educational program in the six communities. All the contraceptive methods being offered are approved by the FDA and at no cost.

The Mobile Clinic will be operated by a full time medical professional staff experienced in the field of family planning. Mrs. JoAnn Tolliver, is the director of the Family Planning Project."

Clinic dates are: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday.

Sunrise service planned

The Michigan State Fair's 20th annual Sunrise Service in cooperation with the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches, will be held at 8 a.m. this Sunday with the Rev. William D. Mercer, pastor of Nardin Park United Methodist Church, as speaker.

The service will be held in the Music Shell, moving into the Coliseum in the event of rain. Admission to the Fairgrounds will be free until 8 a.m., with those attending the Sunrise Service welcome to stay on the Fairgrounds the remainder of the day.

A second Sunrise Service will be held the following Sunday with the Rev. Allan Andrew Zaun, pastor of the Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church, as speaker.

Presiding over the Aug. 30 service will be Dr. Erwin A. Britton, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Detroit and president of the Detroit Pastors' Union.

ONE OF MANY — One of the highlights of this year's Wayne County 4-H Fair held at Belleville was the various horse entries and demonstrations in the fair's horse show. Above is Miss Claudia Lambert of Allen Park, Mich., with her favorite entry.

GRANDSTAND VIEW — The horse show at this year's 4-H Fair drew capacity crowds during the six-day Wayne County 4-H Fair held at Belleville. Above is a view of one of the many horse shows entries and demonstrations seen from the grandstand.

At mid-year, 1970, there were 69 all-electric school buildings in service in Southeastern Michigan, 10 more approved for construction, and more than 400 all-electric mobile classrooms.

Police shooting contests slated

The 33rd annual Michigan Police Shoot, or Governor's Trophy Match, will get underway at 8 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 3, on the R.V. Gray pistol range at Jackson.

With addition of a new Class E, police departments will be competing for trophies in six team classes. The new class is for police and sheriff departments having from two to seven officers. Class E teams will be two-man units.

Defending champions in the other classes are the State Police in AA, Lansing in A, Jackson in B, Taylor in C and Marysville in D.

Individual champion last year was State Police Cpl. Elwyn Burnett, now stationed at the Romeo post.

Entries for the one-day meet, largest all-police match of its kind in the country, are expected to number about 500 individuals grouped into about 150 teams representing about 90 departments.

Pennsylvania State Police officers will serve as range officials this year. They include Sergeants Carlo Lonardi and William Eiker and Troopers Albert DeGuiseppe and Eugene Szanca.

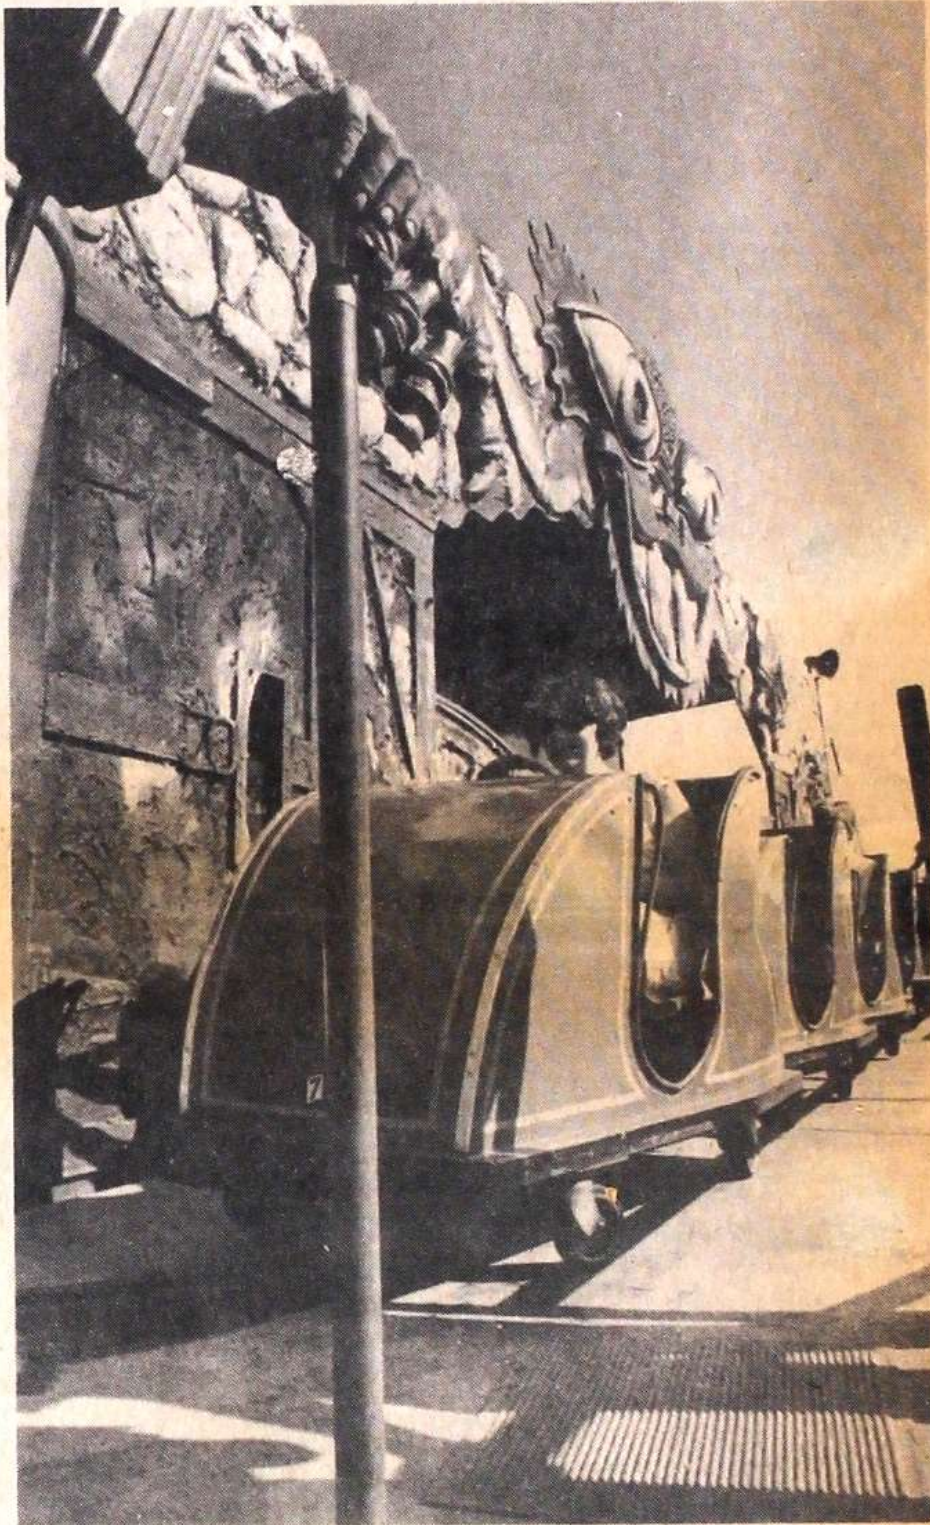

The Governor's Match is sponsored by the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police with cooperation from the Michigan Sheriffs Association and the State Police.

Prior to the Governor's Match, the State Police will hold the departmental Fletcher Trophy Shoot at the Jackson range on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 2.

Defending team champion is the Marquette district while Corporal Burnett took individual honors last year.

DIDN'T HAVE THE SHORTEST TAIL — Patrick Ongley, 3, of 500 Sumpter Rd., Belleville, didn't win because his dog "Cinamon" did not have the shortest tail, but — he was a winner in itself with this nice little French poodle.

INTO THE FUN HOUSE — One of the main attractions at last week's Wayne County 4-H Fair held at Belleville was the Midway. Above is Mrs. Evelyn Sykes and her son, Charles, 4, of 40 Potter Dr., Belleville, entering the fun house. Sorry that only Charles' head is seen. You see he was too busy hanging on.

Chambers director of Southgate bank

Arthur E. Chambers, head of two Southgate industrial firms, has been named a director of the Security Bank and Trust Company, Southgate. He fills a vacancy created by the retirement of Allen M. Lomax, vice-president of David L. Babson and Company.

Chambers, 47, is president and director of Carbide Corporation and Circuitron Corporation, both in Southgate. He also is a partner in the Buhl Land Company, Detroit, and a director of Glen Carbide in Carnegie, Pa.

The new director has headed Carbide since 1960, and under his leadership the firm has advanced to the forefront nationally in the production of tungsten carbide dies and electronic stampings for the semi-conductor industry.

Starting with a fledgling company, Chambers worked on original parts for mechanical components and has assisted with design (he is an engineer by profession) of hundreds of dies, ranging from switches for telephones to tooling for a Greek razor-blade company.

In December 1969, he joined with Jerry D. Luptak, executive vice president of Carbide, and several other men to purchase the stock of the Buhl Land Company in one of the biggest real-estate transactions in Detroit's history.

The company's assets include the 27-story Buhl Building, 535 Griswold, several downtown parking lots, a securities portfolio and about a dozen parcels of improved real estate.

Born in 1923 in Cadillac, Chambers moved to Houghton Lake with his family, and later to Detroit.

A 1941 graduate of Cody High School, Chambers enrolled in Michigan State University shortly before the start of the Second World War. He enlisted in the Air Force and served as a private in Missouri during the war.

After the war, Chambers enrolled in Cornell University, at Ithaca, N.Y., where he majored in mechanical engineering. He was chief design engineer for the Borg-Warner Corporation before joining Carbide.

The new director, his wife, the former Jacqueline Newell, and their four children live on Grosse Ile.

Chambers is a member of the Grosse Ile Golf and Country Club, the American Society for Metals and the American Ordinance Association. He also holds many patents in the mechanical and medical fields.

Other Security Bank directors are: Clarence R. Mead, chairman of the board; Lowell L. Peacock, president, and Stewart Evans, John H. Hancock, Douglas A. Hayes, Jerry D. Luptak, William C. McMillan, L.R. Naragon, Dr. Roy H. Roberts and Harry F. Vellmure.

MILK BREAK -- There are many exhibits and things to see at a County 4-H Fair and this was certainly true at the Wayne County 4-H Fair held at Belleville. And one of these to stop for a refreshment break, above is Karen Bechtel, 18 months, of 27942 Bell Rd., New Boston, stops for a milk break.

Even for a truck this cargo is odd

Ever since the trucking industry became prominent in the transportation field, trucks have been called upon to deliver many things: livestock, automobiles, computers, produce, lumber and missiles, to name just a few.

But no carrier has ever been called upon to transport such an historic and famous cargo as is now touring the nation by truck.

The Apollo 11 command module that flew astronauts Neil Armstrong, Ed Aldrin and Mike Collins to man's first walk on the moon, is visiting every state capital on a one-year, 13,500-mile journey.

The trip is being sponsored by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration with transportation being provided as a public service by the Heavy Specialized Carriers Conference of the American Trucking Associations, Washington, D.C.

Insured for $10 million, the capsule is being transported by a specially-built, 14-foot "lowboy" trailer. The two sides of the trailer fold down when the capsule is being prepared for viewing and serve as walk-up ramps for the visitors. During travel, the sides are raised and used to protect the capsule.

The truck is carrying a virtual service station with it, capable of repairing almost any equipment failure. In addition to the 19 American flags that are being carried, the equipment includes oil sending units, five fan belts, an arm and pulley assembly, rubber hinge retainers, a cab tilt pump, an alternator, a starting motor, a turn signal flashing unit, wheel seals, inner and outer wheel bearings, a shock absorber and a portable truck washing unit with 70 feet of electrical extension cord.

The tractor has two 50-gallon gasoline tanks and each of the two escort cars have two 15-gallon tanks in addition to the regular tanks for a total of 54 gallons in the cars alone.

Complete procedures have been prepared to handle almost any situation from vehicle accident to driver disability.
